

Arrest 2 Ohioans In $50 Million Counterfeit Ring

NEW YORK (AP) — Secret Service agents have seized a printing press and a large amount of counterfeit equipment in Ohio following their confiscation here of $4.1 million worth of phony $100 bills—the largest haul in the history of Secret Service.

Two men have been arrested in Ohio and charged with printing the counterfeit money.

A Miami Beach lawyer, Joel Lee, 39, was arrested here. He allegedly was salesman and traffic manager for the ring that planned to unload $50 million in fake $10, $20 and $100 bills. Authorities say that apparently none of the phony money got into circulation.

Albert E. Whitaker, agent in charge of the Secret Service in New York, has predicted more arrests.

Secret Service agents, acting with local police, seized counterfeit equipment in a raid late Wednesday at a vacant store-room in Wellsville, Ohio. No arrest was made.

Police Capt. Pete Trainer said he understood that the equipment was connected with the counterfeiting operation in which the two Ohio men had been arrested. The material seized included a photocopy camera, two boxes of paper, a trunkful of paper cut to the size of U.S. currency and printing ink.

Earlier Wednesday, Asst. U.S. Atty. Robert J. Rotatori announced at Cleveland that a printing press had been seized on the back porch of the home of James Clark, 28, of Clinton, Ohio.

The press, about half the size of a small auto, could be loaded on a truck and moved to various sites but was too big to get into the house, authorities said. Clark, allegedly the printer and technician in the counterfeiting operation, was arrested Wednesday at a tool and die shop in Akron where he was employed. Clark was acquitted by a jury last year on a charge of an armed holdup of a supermarket.

The other Ohio man arrested by Secret Service agents was Louis Christian, 46, a used car dealer, who was seized at his home in Canton. In 1965, Christian was sentenced to a year in prison for conspiracy to transport stolen autos across state lines.

Clark and Christian, both charged with printing counterfeit money, were held on $75,000 bail each.

U.S. Commissioner Max Schiffman set $25,000 bail Wednesday for Lee, arrested Tuesday night at Kennedy Airport as he was on his way back to Florida, was charged with possession, sale and delivery of the $4.1 million in counterfeit money.

Tree limbs weighted down by a growing accumulation of ice crashed down on power lines, blacking out portions of Raleigh.

The storm moving up the Southeast coastal region scattered the same icy mixture into South Carolina and Virginia and parts of Tennessee and Kentucky as well. Roads, trees and wires were ice-covered over a wide area. Heavy rain soaked the Carolina coast.

Effects of the storm were compounded by gales which swept the coast from South Carolina to New Jersey.

In the West, meanwhile, a fair-blown blizzard raked Southern and Eastern Idaho and adjacent sections of Utah. Temperatures tumbled well below zero behind the storm in Montana.

Family-Type YMCA To Open

Announcement of a full-time secretary for the local family-type YMCA program will be made next week, according to William Shockley, chairman of the steering committee responsible for establishing the program here.

Three men were interviewed for the position from a field of eight applicants channeled through the National YMCA. Final interviews for the local secretary were made by a committee consisting of Mr. Jeanne Bach, Mrs. E. R. Bennett, Robert Johnson, and Shockley.

All members of the committee, which included John Jenkins, have been "greatly impressed" with the high caliber of people working in the "Y" system, particularly those who were interviewed.

Shockley noted it would be a difficult decision, but the committee's selection would be announced by Jan. 16, and the "Y" secretary will arrive here in mid-February.

THE committee chairman said many people are still asking why a program also isn't initiated for women and girls. Shockley reiterated an earlier statement saying the Pickaway County Branch of the YMCA will provide programs for the entire family — men, women, boys and girls.

The second most asked question, he reported, is where the program will be conducted. The office for the YMCA secretary will initially be in the Red Cross building at Watt and Pickaway Sts. Office space has been provided and furniture donated.

Letters have been sent, he continued, to the superintendents of city and county schools, president of the Fair Board and Sgt. Chester Iery of the ONG Armory asking consideration in the use of space in buildings under their respective jurisdiction.

Building programs for permanent headquarters, pool, etc., will come after the program is established and public interest warrants such a need, Shockley said.

Initial phases of the financial campaign are underway. Discussions are being held with various leaders of the community to determine the best approach to this part of the schedule.

Memberships as well as charter memberships will be sold during the next several weeks. The Finance Committee asked that suggestions and public interest be directed to its members. Members are Shockley, Johnson, Mrs. Bach and Mrs. Bennett.

Surveyor 7 Alpha Device Is Thwarted

PASADENA, Calif. (AP) — Surveyor 7's remote-controlled fingers clawed into the face of the moon Wednesday night but scientists were thwarted by inches today from making a chemical analysis of the lunar surface.

Scientists at the Jet Propulsion Laboratory at Pasadena said they have been unable so far to lower a device known as an alpha scattering instrument to the lunar surface.

The alpha device is designed to determine the chemical composition of the surface by radiation. It was stuck about two feet above the crust on the south-central highlands near the Crater Tycho, where the final Surveyor set down.

The alpha device—a 5 x 6 x 7 inch box—must be on the surface to do its job. By remote control, scientists tried to push it to the soil by pressing downward with Surveyor's soil-digging scoop.

It didn't budge the alpha box but scientists planned to continue trying.

The chemical tests are regarded as one of the most important missions of Surveyor 7, which soft-landed Tuesday.

Deputy Is First Witness In Ironton Murder Trial

Opening statements by the prosecution and defense were heard and actual presentation of evidence began Thursday in the Carl Halleck murder trial in Pickaway Common Pleas Court.

One of the men selected on the jury, Robert Frazier of Route 1, Stouffville became ill with the flu Wednesday and did not make the 200-mile round trip to Ironton with the jury to view the scene of the slaying of Ironton Police Chief W. E. Markel.

Today Frazier was still bedfast and a medical certificate was presented by his physician stating he was not in condition to sit on the jury.

Mrs. Lois Campbell, the first alternate juror, was placed on the 12 member panel which is now composed of six men and six women.

THE jury members are Mrs. Edna Timmons, George H. Coon, Stephen Cook, Frank Wilkins, Paul E. Sowers, Martha Peters, Mabel M. Goeller, Ralph Hannans, Mona Lee Morrison, Ruth Rihl, Leonard Turnage and Mrs. Campbell. The remaining two alternates are Mrs. Elisabeth Reichmanis and Willard Speakman.

Over 130 exhibits were prepared for admission as evidence during the course of the trial, including a scale model of the Lawrence County Jail where the slaying took place, an array of weapons involved in the jail break attempt, numerous photographs and diagrams.

In his opening statement this morning, Lawrence County

Prosecutor Dennis Callahan told the members of the jury that he would attempt to prove the elements of the jailbreak and subsequent killing of Markel.

He cautioned the jurors the burden of proof was with the prosecution in the case.

Defense attorney Elliott Myers of Ironton, told the jury that his would be a "negative defense." He stated the defense would show the state could not prove its case against Halleck.

Myers told the jury that Halleck had fled from the jail before the shot was fired that killed Markel.

The first witness called by the prosecution was Lawrence County Deputy Sheriff Robert Henry. Deputy Henry was on duty Dec. 2, 1966, the day the incident took place.

CALLAHAN, questioning the deputy, tried to establish for the jury what took place during the jailbreak.

Involved in the break along with Halleck were William T. Bailey, who was killed by police officers before he escaped, Donald Jenkins and Ronald Brown.

Two other deputies were in the jail at the time. They were Roy Mullins and Claude Chapman.

According to Henry's testimony, Bailey asked to make a telephone call. He was taken by

Transport Hits Nevada Hill; 18-19 Aboard

BATTLE MOUNTAIN, Nev. (AP)—A sheriff's party at daybreak today found a Marine aircraft that disappeared about 18 hours previously in a blinding snowstorm. There was no sign of life.

Sheriff George Schwin of Lander County said the plane hit the top of a hill some 20 miles south of this northern Nevada town and then slid into a canyon.

The four-engine transport disappeared at 1:50 p.m. Wednesday while the pilot was flying on instruments.

At Buckley Air Field in Denver, Colo., a spokesman said the plane was carrying 18 men when it left there on a flight to Seattle. In Washington, the Pentagon said it was carrying 19 men.

Schwin reported to the Bureau of Land Management office in Battle Mountain that he and a party of four men were walking into the plane area.

The pilot was flying on instruments in the blizzard when he radioed that his engines were icing 21 to 30 miles southwest of the little cattle and mining town of Battle Mountain.

He told the Federal Aviation Agency in Salt Lake City: "I am losing altitude at 10,000 feet and at present time unable to maintain 12,000." That was at 1:50 p.m. He wasn't heard from again.

Robert Hodges told the Lander County sheriff's office he heard a "boom and roar" southeast of his farm 20 to 30 miles south of Battle Mountain between 2 and 3 p.m.

The farmer tried to look out in the direction of the noise, said Sheriff George Schwin, but the driving snow made it impossible to see.

Joe Adamson, a watchman at the Duval mine about 17 miles south of Battle Mountain, said he heard a plane roaring through the same general area about 1:55 p.m., Schwin said.

"It's in the Mt. Moses area," Schwin said. "That part of the country consists of one valley and two mountain ranges. It is rocky hills and the mountains on both sides are pretty steep."

"Part of it is a dry lake. It's sparsely covered with scrub cedar and pine. There are a few ranches down there, but only four of five in the whole area. And there's a lot of old mines in the hills and canyons," he said.

One mountain in the area, called Needle Peak, juts 10,000 feet into the sky. Mt. Moses stands 8,645 feet.

The plane carried an amphibious warfare instruction team based at Quantico, Va. The group, touring marine bases throughout the country, was en route to Seattle, Wash. to give its next class.

Lynden Pindling Plans Changes

NASSAU, Bahamas (AP) — Bahamas Premier Lynden O. Pindling marked the beginning of his native government's second year in office today with plans to make the islands internally independent from the British colonial government.

At the first anniversary celebration Wednesday night—in the shadow of one of the largest British forts of the colonial era—Pindling polished the program for presentation to the Bahamas House of Assembly.

A majority report by the Committee on Constitutional Advance, written by Pindling's Progressive Liberal party, a Negro group, is expected to ask that the colonial governor be stripped of his control over internal security and the police.

Infant Girl Is Abandoned

CINCINNATI (AP) — An infant Negro girl, wrapped in a blanket, was found abandoned Thursday morning in a front pew of the St. Francis Seraph Catholic Church in Cincinnati.

Pinned to her clothing was the message:

"Father (referring to a priest) take care of her. She's 11 days old."

The infant was taken to the Juvenile Bureau while authorities attempted to locate the parents.

Bad Weather Still Embraces East Coast

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

A siege of bitter cold weather hung onto the Northeast today while a paralyzing ice storm glazed parts of the Southeast and heavy snows belted the Central Rockies.

Deaths from the five-day onslaught of severe weather mounted to 76. Traffic accidents on ice- and snow-coated roads, exposure, fires due to faulty heating systems and heart attacks brought on by snow shoveling were among causes for the toll.

A four-engine transport plane believed carrying a U.S. Marine instruction team was feared down in the western snowstorm in northern Nevada. The pilot, flying on instruments in the blinding storm, had reported by radio that his engines were icing.

The mercury fell to 28 below zero at Massena, in upstate New York, before dawn. Glens Falls, N.Y., registered -27 and Albany -24.

The subzero chill also hung onto most of New England.

A second night of snow, sleet and freezing rain brought activity in much of North Carolina to a virtual standstill. The highway patrol urged motorists to use roads only in emergencies. Schools that had reopened closed early Wednesday afternoon as did numerous businesses.

Tree limbs weighted down by a growing accumulation of ice crashed down on power lines, blacking out portions of Raleigh.

The storm moving up the Southeast coastal region scattered the same icy mixture into South Carolina and Virginia and parts of Tennessee and Kentucky as well. Roads, trees and wires were ice-covered over a wide area. Heavy rain soaked the Carolina coast.

Equipment Shortages Plague U.S. Strategic Reserve

By FRED S. HOFFMAN

AP Military Writer

WASHINGTON (AP) — U.S. Army divisions and brigades that form a strategic reserve to meet any new crisis abroad, are short nearly one-fifth of their major equipment.

This situation exists more than two years after the Defense Department began putting in heavy orders for gear and supplies to support a big military buildup for the Vietnam war.

Asked for a report on the present equipment situation in the strategic reserves, the Army replied Wednesday: "The active Army divisions and brigades currently stationed in continental United States have on hand approximately 82 per cent of their authorized . . . major end items equipment."

The Army defined a major end item as "one which in itself performs a function" such as trucks and tanks.

It estimated only about one-half of the shortages will be filled by June 30.

Beyond an across-the-board percentage the Army declined on security grounds to provide a detailed breakdown of short items.

But while the strategic reserves are short of their allotted equipment the Army apparently has made progress in modernizing their gear.

In May 1966 the Senate preparedness subcommittee complained stateside divisions were burdened with over-age vehicles and tracked equipment which has been driven "an excessive number of miles."

The new report said fewer than 1.2 per cent of the major items on hand are less than first-line quality.

The preparedness subcommittee charged in March 1966 that the Army's divisions in the United States were not combat-ready because they were being used to train draftees and recruits. Secretary of Defense Robert S. McNamara acknowledged this was so.

A separate Army report, furnished on request to The Associated Press, showed this problem has been overcome. The Army said no basic trainees remain in the ranks of its divisions and brigades in the United States.

Furthermore, virtually all those units are at 100 per cent strength, with many of their men Vietnam combat veterans, the Army said.

Only two divisions, one a mechanized infantry division and one an armored division, are below full strength and these, sources said, range between 95 per cent and 100 per cent, of full manpower.

There are four Army divisions in the strategic reserves. They are the 1st Armored Division and 2nd Armored Division, both at Ft. Hood, Texas; the 5th Mechanized Division at Ft. Carson, Colo.; and the 82nd Airborne Division at Ft. Bragg, N.C.

A new division, the 6th Infantry, is beginning to take shape at Ft. Campbell, Ky. It will probably not be combat-ready until late this year.

When the United States decided to take the big plunge in Vietnam in the summer of 1965, the Army's strategic reserve was made up of eight divisions plus two brigades.

Also forming an important part of the strategic reserves are two Marine divisions, the 2nd based at Camp Lejeune, N.C., and the 5th at Camp Pendleton, Calif.

About one-third of the 5th Marine Division is in Vietnam. Roughly the same slice of the 2nd Marine Division is aloft on normal rotation duty in the Mediterranean and Caribbean or stationed at the U.S. Naval Base at Guantanamo Bay, Cuba.

Sources said both Marine divisions have some minor manpower gaps but are in pretty good shape so far as equipment is concerned.

River Search To Continue

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP) — Ohio Civil Defense officials said Thursday they plan to keep searching the Ohio River until the 10 people and one vehicle known missing in the Dec. 15 Silver Bridge collapse are found.

They said another full effort will be made this weekend, with private boats probing and dragging the 14 miles of icy river between Pt. Pleasant, W. Va., and Kanauga, Ohio.

The Coast Guard and some private boats have been continuing the search this week, but the search is intensified on weekends when more volunteers are available, Ohio Civil Defense Chief James Worster said.

State Civil Defense officials are remaining at the scene of the bridge collapse around the clock.

NFO Grain Holding Action Is Announced

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP)—The state secretary of the National Farmers Organization, Mrs. Mildred Davis of Five Points, Pickaway County, reported that a grain holding action by the organization's members in Ohio and 27 other states began Thursday morning.

She said members had been alerted by telephone Wednesday night. Oren Lee Staley, national president of the group with headquarters in Corning, Iowa, had said earlier the action would be ordered before Jan. 17.

At that time Staley also disclosed holding of meat animals on farms is the next probable action by his group's members aimed at obtaining what he terms "fair" prices for farm commodities.

Tom Conrad of Atlanta, Pickaway County, Ohio agent for the NFO office, said the grain is being held from market channels while county, state and national organization personnel bargain with processors and other receivers for higher farm prices.

Mrs. Davis said a state convention would be held next Monday at 8 p. m. in the State Fairgrounds Youth Center to discuss progress of the holding action and to elect a national director to replace Charles Harden of Mount Vernon, who resigned.

Ike Heads List of 10 Most Popular

NEW YORK (AP) — Former President Dwight D. Eisenhower is named in a Gallup Poll as the man Americans admired most in the world in 1967.

Eisenhower edged out President Johnson, who had been the number one choice in the last four annual surveys.

Johnson dropped to number two and Sen. Robert F. Kennedy, D-N.Y., who placed third in 1966, dropped to fourth behind the Rev. Billy Graham.

Dr. George Gallup of the American Institute of Public Opinion in Princeton, N.J., said poll takers asked 1,526 U.S. adults:

"What man that you have heard or read about living today in any part of the world, do you admire most?"

The top ten names, in order of preference, were Eisenhower; Johnson, the Rev. Mr. Graham; Kennedy; Pope Paul VI; Sen. Everett M. Dirksen, R-Ill., former vice president; Richard M. Nixon; former Gov. George C. Wallace of Alabama; Gov. Ronald Reagan of California and former President Harry S. Truman.

South Koreans To Defoliate

SEOUL (AP) — South Korea plans to defoliate a large part of its half of the demilitarized zone between North and South Korea so sentries will have a better chance of spotting North Korean infiltrators, military sources said today.

The sources said the Korean Defense Ministry asked the United Nations Command for 45,000 gallons of defoliation chemicals similar to those used by U.S. forces in Vietnam.

They said the chemicals will be sprayed mainly along the fence barrier now under construction as an early warning system just below the Korean buffer zone.

Shanghai Hit By Anti-Mao Outbreaks

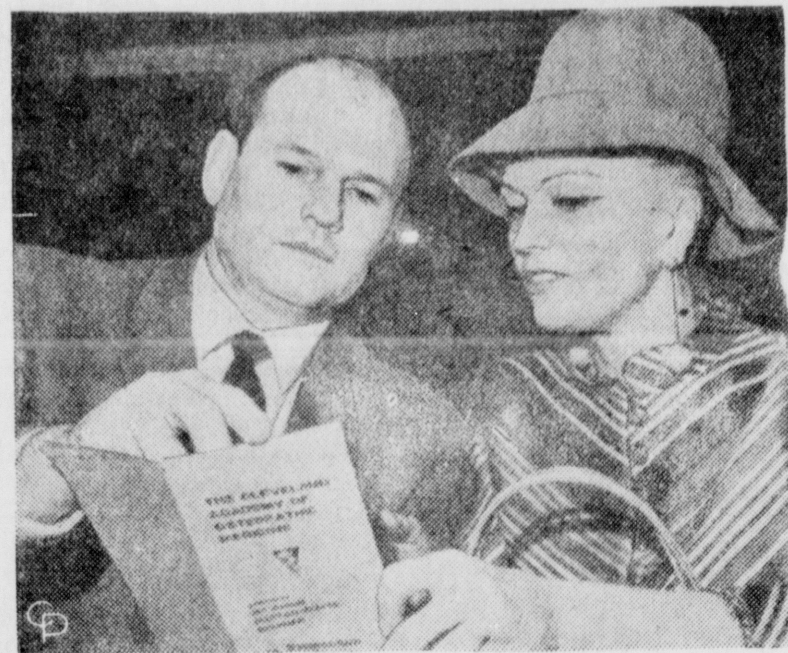

TOKYO (AP) — A year and a half after the start of Mao Tse-tung's "cultural revolution" purge, a Maoist newspaper reports "hoodlums and delinquent gangs" who want capitalism have started new violence in Shanghai, Red China's largest city.

The gangs went on a rampage recently as "a last-ditch, life or death struggle waged by the enemy against us," says the Dec. 27 edition of the Liberation Daily, a translation of which became available in Tokyo today.

The newspaper also reported a split in the workers' movement in the port city of 10 million people and said "class enemies" have been uncovered throughout the educational system and in literature, art, publication and press organizations.

This suggests that the Shanghai Revolutionary Committee—formed recently with Mao's blessing—does not yet exercise complete control over the city.

No Antirecession Report Seen Soon

WASHINGTON (AP) — Ten months after President Johnson ordered a Cabinet-level commission to begin work at once on an antirecession strategy for a peacetime economy its members still haven't delivered a formal proposal to the White House.

"There is no report in the sense of a report for the President to act on," a Commerce Department official said in an interview. "We're working on it, though I can't say at any fur-

Johnson, saying an end to the Vietnam war could jeopardize the economic boom that began in early 1961, directed Chairman Gardner Ackley of the Council of Economic Advisers and other aides last January "to begin at once a major and coordinated effort" to prepare for the economics of peace.

"When that welcome day of peace arrives, we will need quick adjustments in our economic policies," Johnson said in his annual economic message to Congress last Jan. 26. "We must be prepared for those adjustments, ready to act rapidly."

The White House had no comment on the commission's work although one spokesman said he

River Search To Continue

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP) — Ohio Civil Defense officials said Thursday they plan to keep searching the Ohio River until the 10 people and one vehicle known missing in the Dec. 15 Silver Bridge collapse are found.

They said another full effort will be made this weekend, with private boats probing and dragging the 14 miles of icy river channels while county, state and national organization personnel bargain with processors and other receivers for higher farm prices.

The Coast Guard and some private boats have been continuing the search this week, but the search is intensified on weekends when more volunteers are available, Ohio Civil Defense Chief James Worster said.

State Civil Defense officials are remaining at the scene of the bridge collapse around the clock.

Ike Heads List of 10 Most Popular

NEW YORK (AP) — Former President Dwight D. Eisenhower is named in a Gallup Poll as the man Americans admired most in the world in 1967.

Eisenhower edged out President Johnson, who had been the number one choice in the last four annual surveys.

Johnson dropped to number two and Sen. Robert F. Kennedy, D-N.Y., who placed third in 1966, dropped to fourth behind the Rev. Billy Graham.

Dr. George Gallup of the American Institute of Public Opinion in Princeton, N.J., said poll takers asked 1,526 U.S. adults:

"What man that you have heard or read about living today in any part of the world, do you admire most?"

The top ten names, in order of preference, were Eisenhower; Johnson, the Rev. Mr. Graham; Kennedy; Pope Paul VI; Sen. Everett M. Dirksen, R-Ill., former vice president Richard M. Nixon; former Gov. George C. Wallace of Alabama; Gov. Ronald Reagan of California and former President Harry S. Truman.

South Koreans To Defoliate

SEOUL (AP) — South Korea plans to defoliate a large part of its half of the demilitarized zone between North and South Korea so sentries will have a better chance of spotting North Korean infiltrators, military sources said today.

The sources said the Korean Defense Ministry asked the United Nations Command for 45,000 gallons of defoliation chemicals similar to those used by U.S. forces in Vietnam.

They said the chemicals will be sprayed mainly along the fence barrier now under construction as an early warning system just below the Korean buffer zone.

Hubert's Coming

TUNIS (AP)—Vice President H. Humphrey left for Washington today after a 13-day, nine-nation African tour on which he said he sought to "make clear America's commitment . . . to peaceful development and human opportunity."

Transport Hits Nevada Hill; 18-19 Aboard

BATTLE MOUNTAIN, Nev. (AP)—A sheriff's party at daybreak today found a Marine aircraft that disappeared about 18 hours previously in a blinding snowstorm. There was no sign of life.

Sheriff George Schwin of Lander County said the plane hit the top of a hill some 20 miles south of this northern Nevada town and then slid into a canyon.

The four-engine transport disappeared at 1:50 p.m. Wednesday while the pilot was flying on instruments.

At Buckley Air Field in Denver, Colo., a spokesman said the plane was carrying 18 men when it left there on a flight to Seattle. In Washington, the Pentagon said it was carrying 19 men.

Schwin reported to the Bureau of Land Management office in Battle Mountain that he and a party of four men were walking into the plane area.

The pilot was flying on instruments in the blizzard when he radioed that his engines were icing 21 to 30 miles southwest of the little cattle and mining town of Battle Mountain.

He told the Federal Aviation Agency in Salt Lake City: "I am losing altitude at 10,000 feet and at present time unable to maintain 12,000." That was at 1:50 p.m. He wasn't heard from again.

Robert Hodges told the Lander County sheriff's office he heard a "boom and roar" southeast of his farm 20 to 30 miles south of Battle Mountain between 2 and 3 p.m.

The farmer tried to look out in the direction of the noise, said Sheriff George Schwin, but the driving snow made it impossible to see.

Joe Adamson, a watchman at the Duval mine about 17 miles south of Battle Mountain, said he heard a plane roaring through the same general area about 1:55 p.m., Schwin said.

"It's in the Mt. Moses area," Schwin said. "That part of the country consists of one valley and two mountain ranges. It is rocky hills and the mountains on both sides are pretty steep."

"Part of it is a dry lake. It's sparsely covered with scrub cedar and pine. There are a few ranches down there, but only four of five in the whole area. And there's a lot of old mines in the hills and canyons," he said.

One mountain in the area, called Needle Peak, juts 10,000 feet into the sky. Mt. Moses stands 8,645 feet.

The plane carried an amphibious warfare instruction team based at Quantico, Va. The group, touring marine bases throughout the country, was en route to Seattle, Wash. to give its next class.

Lynden Pindling Plans Changes

NASSAU, Bahamas (AP) — Bahamas Premier Lynden O. Pindling marked the beginning of his native government's second year in office today with plans to make the islands internally independent from the British colonial government.

At the first anniversary celebration Wednesday night—in the shadow of one of the largest British forts of the colonial era—Pindling polished the program for presentation to the Bahamas House of Assembly.

A majority report by the Committee on Constitutional Advancement, written by Pindling's Progressive Liberal party, a Negro group, is expected to ask that the colonial governor be stripped of his control over internal security and the police.

Infant Girl Is Abandoned

CINCINNATI (AP) — An infant Negro girl, wrapped in a blanket, was found abandoned Thursday morning in a front pew of the St. Francis Seraph Catholic Church in Cincinnati.

Pinned to her clothing was the message: "Father (referring to a priest) take care of her. She's 11 days old."

The infant was taken to the Juvenile Bureau while authorities attempted to locate the parents.

Deputy . . .

Henry from the second floor of the jail to the office to make the call.

Henry said he stepped from one room to another to answer a call. Bailey was in the custody of the other two officers at the time.

The next time Henry saw Bailey he had a gun. He ordered Henry to unlock the second floor of the jail, releasing Hallock, Jenkins and Brown. He then ordered the deputy to unlock the gun cabinet. Bailey took machine gun and two clips of ammunition.

DURING the course of the jail break, Patrolman Ken Sites of the Ironton Police Department and Chief Markel entered the building.

Henry testified to hearing four shots fired, and then reported seeing Sites on the floor, in apparent pain, and in seeing Markel lying on the floor in a pool of blood.

At about this point, the trial was recessed for noon, and was slated to reconvene at 1:15 p.m.

Present during the morning session was Mrs. Walter Markel, the slain chief's widow. She has attended every day of previous trials, including the one in Lawrence County which ended in a hung jury, forcing the retrial being held here.

Brown and Jenkins were convicted and sentenced to life in the State Penitentiary on a recommendation of mercy returned by jurors.

Mrs. Markel sat quietly in the courtroom today, watching the witness or staring at her hands. There were tears in her eyes at times.

Glue Sniffing Injures 2 Girls

JACKSON, Miss. (AP) — Two attractive Jackson sisters, aged 15 and 17, were committed to Columbia State Training School Wednesday by a state judge who said they suffered minor brain damage from sniffing glue.

County Judge Carl Guernsey sentenced the girls, whose case came to official attention when the older one was hospitalized after a "glue-sniffing party." Hospital spokesmen said the younger girl's brain damage was permanent.

Identities were not made public.

Avco President Makes Speech

DALLAS, Tex. (AP) — John T. Murphy, president of Avco Broadcasting Corp., said Wednesday night that both television and advertisers would benefit if more broadcasters stressed live, local programs, as his stations do.

Murphy, whose headquarters are in Cincinnati, Ohio, addressed the Texas Association of Broadcast Executives.

Deputy . . .

Henry from the second floor of the jail to the office to make the call.

Henry said he stepped from one room to another to answer a call. Bailey was in the custody of the other two officers at the time.

The next time Henry saw Bailey he had a gun. He ordered Henry to unlock the second floor of the jail, releasing Hallock, Jenkins and Brown. He then ordered the deputy to unlock the gun cabinet. Bailey took machine gun and two clips of ammunition.

DURING the course of the jail break, Patrolman Ken Sites of the Ironton Police Department and Chief Markel entered the building.

Henry testified to hearing four shots fired, and then reported seeing Sites on the floor, in apparent pain, and in seeing Markel lying on the floor in a pool of blood.

At about this point, the trial was recessed for noon, and was slated to reconvene at 1:15 p.m.

Present during the morning session was Mrs. Walter Markel, the slain chief's widow. She has attended every day of previous trials, including the one in Lawrence County which ended in a hung jury, forcing the retrial being held here.

Brown and Jenkins were convicted and sentenced to life in the State Penitentiary on a recommendation of mercy returned by jurors.

Mrs. Markel sat quietly in the courtroom today, watching the witness or staring at her hands. There were tears in her eyes at times.

Glue Sniffing Injures 2 Girls

JACKSON, Miss. (AP) — Two attractive Jackson sisters, aged 15 and 17, were committed to Columbia State Training School Wednesday by a state judge who said they suffered minor brain damage from sniffing glue.

County Judge Carl Guernsey sentenced the girls, whose case came to official attention when the older one was hospitalized after a "glue-sniffing party." Hospital spokesmen said the younger girl's brain damage was permanent.

Identities were not made public.

Avco President Makes Speech

DALLAS, Tex. (AP) — John T. Murphy, president of Avco Broadcasting Corp., said Wednesday night that both television and advertisers would benefit if more broadcasters stressed live, local programs, as his stations do.

Murphy, whose headquarters are in Cincinnati, Ohio, addressed the Texas Association of Broadcast Executives.

Air Mail, 1st Class To Merge?

WASHINGTON (AP) — The Post Office Department plans to eliminate air mail as a separate service and send all first class letters by air at the new six-cent rate, Postmaster General Lawrence F. O'Brien announced today.

O'Brien said that for all purposes the Post Office already is sending nearly all first class mail by air.

"Very, very little of this is being handled by the railroad. We have what closely approximates a total airlift service now," he told a news conference.

Within the last year the Post Office has connected more than 500 cities in a nationwide airlift network.

"As a result, 75 per cent of all first class mail deposited before 5 p.m. is now being delivered the day after mailing, and 90 per cent is being delivered within two days," he said.

O'Brien emphasized, however, that under the present system use of a 10-cent airmail stamp still guarantees air transportation until a new single class priority mail service is formally established.

He said that in 1969 the Post Office will ask Congress to eliminate the air postage rate and to merge airmail and first class into the new single class of priority service.

Rap Brown Hides Inside Cuba Mission

NEW YORK (AP) — Black Power militant H. Rap Brown took refuge for nearly six hours in the Cuban mission to the United Nations after he and a rookie patrolman were involved in a shoving incident outside the building.

The episode Wednesday evening escalated into something of a minor diplomatic incident. The mission sent a sharp note to U.N. Secretary General U Thant protesting police "mistreatment and abusive behavior."

Police said the patrolman involved would go into criminal court today seeking a summons charging Brown with "harassment."

Just before he left the mission at 10:45 p.m. for an undisclosed location, Brown told newsmen waiting outside that the day's events were the "action of the Gestapo police" and "instigated by Mayor Lindsay and President Johnson."

"It is an action to crush dissent," he charged. "We came in as guests and we serve notice again that if white people are going to play Nazis, black folks ain't goin' to play Jews."

The Cuban U.N. delegation said that upon instructions from its government, it "denounced to the United Nations the flagrant violation of the territorial integrity of Cuban soil by the American authorities."

Poles Violate U.S. Immunity

WARSAW, Poland (AP) — The U.S. military attache has been ordered by the Communist government to leave Poland after Polish military personnel detained him against his will and forcibly searched him, the American Embassy said today.

The attache is Lt. Col. Edward H. Metger of Quincy, Mass., who has been assigned in Warsaw since May 1968.

The U.S. Embassy said protests to the Polish government have been made here and in Washington. It said the treatment of Col. Metger was a "flagrant violation of the immunity of an American diplomatic officer."

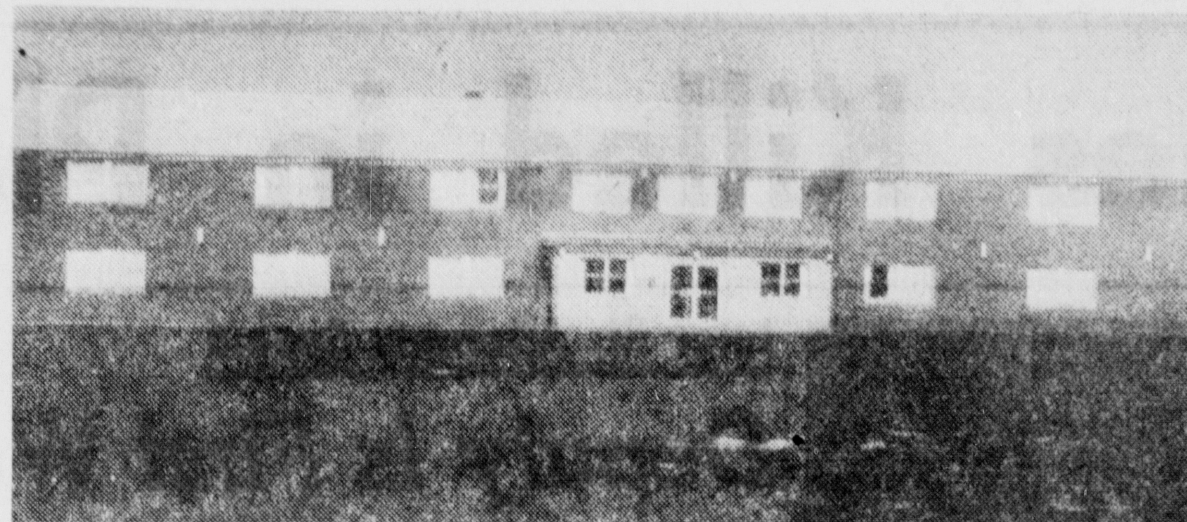

Set Spook Hearing

BOSTON (AP) — Arraignment of Dr. Benjamin Spock, Yale Chaplain William Sloane Coffin Jr. and three others indicted for counseling draft evaders has been scheduled Jan. 29 in U.S. District Court.

Stock Market On Upside

NEW YORK (AP) — The stock market continued a generally higher movement early this afternoon. Trading was a bit faster than on Wednesday.

Gains outnumbered losses by a 2-to-1 ratio.

Because of continued weakness in a number of its 30 blue chip components, the Dow Jones industrial average at noon was off .92 at 903.03.

Broader stock market indexes, such as that of the New York Stock Exchange, showed a gain, reflecting the higher trend of most stocks.

The Associated Press average of 60 stocks at noon was up .2 at 326.5 with industrials up .2, rails up .1 and utilities up .2.

Glen Alden, an on/her fraction, continued a climb which has put it among the most active issues for the past four sessions.

Montgomery Ward dropped a point. Prices advanced in fairly active trading on the American Stock Exchange.

The college has set aside Sunday afternoon as open house for area residents.

The new men's dormitory, a 155-foot two-story brick building, will be on display from 2 to 4 p. m. on that day.

Fixtures such as laundry facilities and toilet arrangements are of the latest design and each student room is fitted with built-in study areas. A three-room apartment provides excellent accommodations for the campus custodian.

Fire alarm and communication systems add to the safety of the building.

Until the whole college operation can be moved to the new site, some form of a branch reference library will probably occupy a portion of one of the student lounges.

This building, the second to be erected on the campus, is part of a master plan which will provide for a projected student body of 500. The plan calls for four resident halls, of which this is the first; two buildings devoted to academic instruction, one slated for construction in 1968-69; a college chapel presently under construction and due for completion in late winter; a student activities center; and a library and music buildings.

These are in addition to the administration building which was completed in 1966 and is presently being used to house the general church offices and Advocate Bookroom. The general offices will later return to the Ohio Street location.

Unseen, but nevertheless of extreme importance, is the fact that during this year utility services have been installed capable of handling the completed project. The greatest of these has been the installation of a modern primary and secondary stage sewage treatment plant built to meet all state requirements for water purity.

Electric distribution is largely underground and centralized.

Demos Face Big Problem

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP) — Practical politics could lead Democratic State Committee members to sidestep an endorsement for U.S. Senator at their meeting here today.

Such a course in the interest of party harmony apparently would signal a tactical victory for Sen. Frank J. Lausche, 72, who has announced for a third term, over former congressman John J. Gilligan, 46, Cincinnati, touted as the favorite of a committee majority to oppose Lausche for the May 7 nomination.

That's the way a veteran committeeman summed up the effervescent situation in advance of the 3:30 p.m. closed committee meeting.

Hay Reported Stolen

Dale Schiff, Route 2, Ashville told the Pickaway County Sheriff's Department Wednesday that 3 to 4 tons of hay had been taken from his barn on Hoover Road recently.

Police Probe Gas Station Burglaries

Circleville Police today are pushing the investigation of an attempted burglary of the Davis Sohio Station on North Court Street and the burglary of the Mavis Sohio Station on East Main St.

Entry was not gained into the Davis station. Intruders tried to force a door. Although entry was not gained, the door was damaged to the extent the lock had to be broken to allow the owner to enter the building police said.

The entry attempt was discovered at 2:36 p. m. today.

Entry was gained into the Mavis station between 10 and 11:45 p. m. Wednesday.

A window on a large overhead door was broken.

The intruders forced open cigarette and soft drink vending machines taking an undetermined amount of change. The cash register and desk of the station were ransacked and an estimated $7 in pennies also taken.

Deaths

DR. CLARENCE V. YAPLE

Dr. Clarence V. Yaple, 86, of Chillicothe, died 10:05 p. m. Tuesday in Chillicothe Hospital.

Born May 16, 1881, near Kingston, he was the son of William and Eliza Leasure Yaple.

Dr. Yaple was a retired dentist. He spent 32 years practicing his profession.

He was a member of Trinity Methodist Church and a member of the Masonic Order in Chillicothe.

He was married to Nelly Lynch Yaple, who preceded him in death in 1957.

Surviving are several nieces and nephews, including Mrs. Fred Orr, Route 1, Chillicothe.

Services will be 11 a. m. Friday in the Ware Funeral Home, Chillicothe, with burial in Grandview Cemetery. The Rev. Floyd Fought will officiate.

Friends may call at the funeral home beginning 4 p. m. Thursday.

MRS. GLADYS L. WHITTEN

Services for Mrs. Gladys L. Whitten of Yellowbud, who died Wednesday, will be 2 p.m. Saturday in the Yellowbud Evangelical United Brethren Church.

The Rev. Julius Mathias will officiate and burial will be in Springbank Cemetery.

Friends may call at the Hill Funeral Home in Kingston beginning 4 p. m. Friday and at the church after 10 a. m. Saturday.

Brown, Rusk Hold Meeting

WASHINGTON (AP) — Secretary of State Dean Rusk and British Foreign Secretary George Brown met today to discuss problems ranging from the Vietnam war to the actions taken by both countries to defend their currencies.

The two foreign policy chiefs were scheduled to talk for three hours before Brown leaves for London.

Chamber Annual Dinner Meet Is Jan. 25th

DR. CARL S. WINTERS

Annual dinner meeting of the Circleville Area Chamber of Commerce is scheduled Jan. 25, in the 4H Grange Building at the fairgrounds.

Keynote speaker for the event will be Dr. Carl S. Winters, internationally famous as a lecturer and public speaker.

Dr. Winters was to be the highlight of last year's meeting, but was snowbound in Chicago and couldn't fill the engagement.

Billed as a "jet-circuit-rider" on the lecture staff of General Motors Corp., Dr. Winters is a four star speaker. He has been engaged in his speaking capacity all over the world.

SOME of his recent appearances include: International Police Chiefs Conference in New York; National Assn. of Club

Managers in Denver; Boys Clubs of America, Los Angeles; American Industrial Bankers Assn., French Lick; National Automobile Dealers Assn., San Francisco; National Assn. of Credit Managers, Seattle; National Safety Conference, Chicago; New York Conference of Mayors; Georgia School Boards Assn., Atlanta; 40 chamber of commerce banquets, 42 colleges and universities, 16 state medical associations and 20 automobile dealers' groups.

Dr. Winters speaks to more than a quarter of a million people each year in state national and international conventions.

A reception will be held for Dr. Winters preceding the dinner and meeting at 6:30. Punch will be served followed by dinner at 7 p. m. John Wood of Xenia will provide entertainment on the electric organ throughout the evening.

The dinner will be prepared and served by members of Hedges Chapel Methodist Church.

Tickets are available from chamber directors.

Ho Chi Minh's 'Peace'

After four months of absence from public view, President Ho Chi Minh has taken to the rostrum twice lately to remind the world that Hanoi has no more interest than ever in negotiating an end to the Vietnamese war.

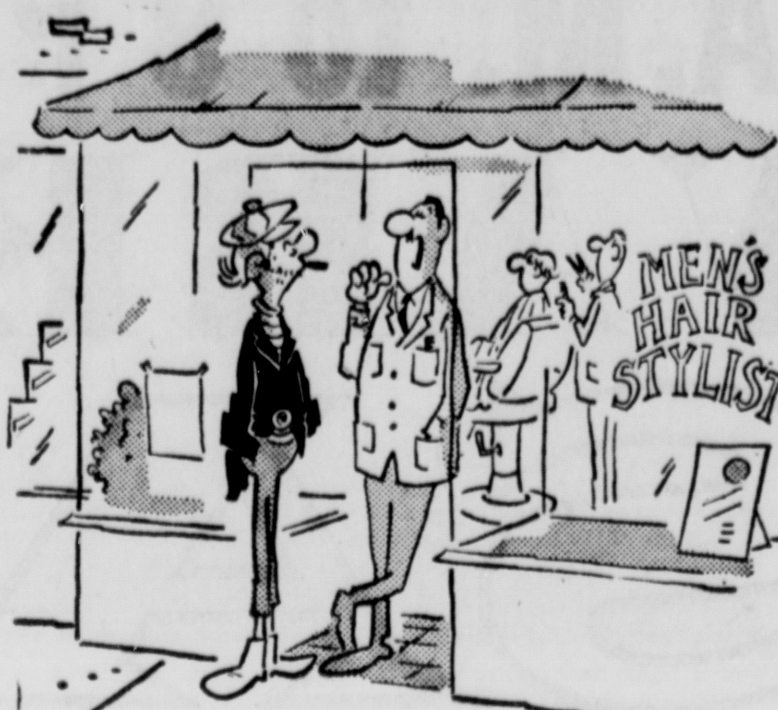

He continues to demand that the United States and its allies pull out, leaving South Vietnam to the communists. He made it clear he was not interested in reaching a settlement short of that, military or political.

There was the usual insistence on military victory, and optimistic promises that it would be attained, along with gratitude for "firm support of friends in the five continents." And well he might be grateful, for it is such support—some by persons in the United States who would obstruct their own country's effort—that feeds his contempt for peace of any terms but the Viet Cong's.

Still, he serves one useful purpose which seems to escape his friends—and that is making clearer that those who champion Ho's terms as the way to peace are in reality championing a longer war.

MR. MACGREGOR went to Wales on business, and called his wife in New York to congratulate her on her birthday. "Just where are you calling from?" she asked. "To be exact," he answered impatiently, "from Plas Penrhyn, Penrhyn Deudrath, Merioneth. I'd spell it for you, dear, but I'm paying personally for this call."

A resourceful radio announcer arranged to do a local broadcast from the city dog pound, and as listeners heard a background chorus of mournful barking by the stray dogs, they were told that if they contributed just one dollar to the pound, they not only would save one animal's life but would be presented with the dog as well.

A week later the happy director of the dog pound called up the radio announcer to tell him, "What a hit that broadcast of yours made! The dollar bills have been pouring in so fast, I've had to hire three more dog catchers to fill the orders!"

Speaking of Your Health

By Lester L. Coleman, M.D.

Can a person have a form of heart trouble and not be aware of it. I am 25 years old and have been having chest pains for three or four years. My doctor says "my heart is all right." Can a doctor really be sure without an electrocardiogram?

Mrs. M. K. West Virginia Dear Mrs. K.: It is difficult to believe that anyone at the age of 25 could have a form of heart trouble without having signs or symptoms to suggest such a condition.

The fact that you have been having chest pains for three or four years has made you anxious about them, but it does not necessarily mean that you have heart trouble. There are many, many reasons for pains in the chest completely unrelated to the heart.

You have had this discomfort for years and by now it might be assumed that if a heart condition were present you would have other symptoms that would incapacitate you.

Your fears have persisted even though your doctor assured you that your heart was "all right." When does one really believe his doctor?

Does not the fact that you function normally show that your doctor's clinical judgment is correct. Do you believe that your doctor would deprive you of hospitalization and treatment if there were any real suggestion that you have heart trouble?

Yes, a physician can be sure that a patient's heart is normal without an electrocardiogram, or EKG. Before these machines, were available the training of the physician, his knowledge and clinical judgment were usually sufficient to make the diagnosis.

Unless I am mistaken even if an EKG was taken and this was found to be normal you still would be frightened and fearful about a "heart condition" that does not exist.

Perhaps you should discuss this with your doctor and he may suggest a psychological interview that will help to explain the fears that have been unnecessarily distressing you.

We are avid readers of your newspaper column and are grateful for the advice you give, especially those that will relieve our family fears. Can you give me any information on birth control?

Mrs. K. A., Connecticut

Dear Mrs. A.: It always delights me to learn that my readers derive some relief from their fears and anxieties from my columns. This indeed is one of the major objectives I try to obtain.

As I have often said, newspaper columns and magazine articles are never a substitute for the specific information that can only be acquired from your doctor. He knows you, your problems, both physical and emotional, and is in the best possible position to supply you with the information you need.

There are many types of birth control pills, contraceptive devices and rhythm methods. Not all people can safely use the birth control pill.

Many have side-effects that do not permit the continued use. Some women must try a number of birth control pills before finding one that they are comfortable with.

Your physician and only your physician should prescribe and direct the use and continuance of the birth control pill.

Carnegie Could Help LBJ

By JOHN CHAMBERLAIN

Someone forgot to put a copy of Dale Carnegie's "How to Make Friends and Influence People" in President Lyndon Johnson's Christmas stocking.

True enough, the President had to do something about the bad stretch of open water that was showing between our income and our outgo in the international balance of payments. The fourth quarter figures for 1967 are supposed to be something pretty horrible. But, as a curbstone economist who believes in paying at least minimal attention to psychological factors, I can't see how LBJ thinks he can:

1. Stimulate more foreign investment and tourism in the United States by cutting down on U. S. foreign investment and tourism abroad, and —

2. Increase the long-term sales of American exports, and persuade foreign nations to reduce their trade barriers, by depriving individual foreigners of their own livings from access to U. S. dollars.

You don't, in short, put foreigners in a mood to do something for you when you are proposing to do something against them. Foreigners need to make money out of us if they are going to buy here, travel here and invest here. Nobody acts in a vacuum. Why should Britons, Frenchmen, Italians and Germans spend money in the U. S. if we are making it our national policy to deprive European hotel keepers, ski resort operators, restaurateurs and travel agencies of their livings? Why should foreigners help expand U. S. exports by lowering their quota barriers and border penalties if we are acting to cut down on foreign access to U. S. dollars? Individuals don't pay attention to abstract balance-of-payment considerations; they think in terms of personal income, and anything that tends to reduce the totality of trade is bound to make individuals mad. The LBJ program adds up to beggar your neighbor economic warfare.

So LBJ needs to brush up on his Dale Carnegie. However, the thought occurs that his tough-talk program was:

1. Designed to get in a verbal blow before the extremely gloomy fourth quarter 1967 balance-of-payments figures become common knowledge, and —

2. Scare Congress, by indirection, into giving him his surtax increase.

Surely LBJ is aware that Congress isn't going to cut out Aunt Milly's long-planned summer trip to France and Italy, or strike at the overseas business of Pan American Airways and TWA. But a "trade-off" might be arranged by sacrificing the anti-tourist-travel proposal in order to get the surtax. And the surtax, so the theory goes, would lessen the inflationary pressure on the U. S. price level and thus make it easier for foreigners to spend their money on U. S. goods and on travel inside our country.

The idea of curing our balance-of-payment troubles by striking at the U. S. capital account abroad seems peculiarly short-sighted. For if we didn't have thriving foreign investments overseas we would really be in a pickle. Our income from foreign private investments was running at an annual rate of $6.7 billion in the third quarter of 1967, so an officer of the Chase Manhattan Bank informs me.

The outflow of U. S. capital for annual foreign investment purposes has been in the $2.5 billion to $3 billion area. So the deficit in the balance-of-payments does not derive from our overseas capital account. Nor does it arise from any deficit on our merchandise account, for we still sell more abroad than we buy. The deficits come from war-connected expenses and related foreign aid — from the cost of fighting in Vietnam, keeping NATO going and so on. It may be said that the war-created deficits can't be avoided. But neither can they be cured by penalizing private activities which, actually, give us a surplus in dealing with the foreigner.

What is needed is discipline at home to make the U. S. more competitive in the world. There is no sense in tolerating that six-month domestic copper strike that forces us to buy copper overseas. There is no sense inflating the domestic price level at three per cent a year by running deficits on our annual government budget if we want the foreigner to buy here. Our inflation not our overseas trade and private lending, is the real devil. Why doesn't LBJ do more about that?

The World Today

By JAMES MARLOW

WASHINGTON (AP) — This is the year of judgment for President Johnson, making everything that he has done or that has happened to him in 37 years of public life a preparation for the 1968 test which can be briefly stated:

Do the people have enough confidence in him to want him for president again?

Even in 1968 the test could be less than clear-cut if Republicans produce a mediocre candidate to run against him, for then the public reaction might hardly be more than "Better Johnson than that other guy."

And the test might well have been in 1964, instead of 1968, when he beat Barry Goldwater for the presidency so overwhelmingly.

After that victory, if the times had been normal and his presidency had been reasonably good, he could have looked forward to reelection this year rather comfortably.

But the Vietnam war has divided the country so badly, with a multitude of ill will dumped on Johnson for failing somehow to abandon the war, that it is the major issue now and Johnson is inescapably identified with it.

Just as much of a handicap to him is that his performance in the presidency, aside from the war, has been blurred in the public mind by the war itself, which has consumed time and energy he could have devoted to other fields and other needs.

This in turn put a huge dent in his image as the master politician who had Congress eating out of his hand, for the time he had to spend on the war diminished his contact and influence with the men in the Capitol.

Thus the four years between the 1964 and 1968 elections can give only a foggy picture of what the Johnson presidency might have been if there had been no war.

No one seems to doubt he will run again. But only if he is re-elected and the war disappears and he has then four fairly tranquil years can his performance in the presidency be fairly and fully appraised.

Meanwhile, in the hurly-burly of the years he has already spent in the White House Johnson has had time to examine his virtues and defects as a leader in contact with the people.

His greatest failure, perhaps, is in communication. He has been too stiff, too unskilled in public speaking to arouse deep feeling or personal devotion although it could mean life or death for him politically.

He apparently realizes this for his performance before the television cameras has greatly improved. The best example of this was at his news conference not long ago when he was his free-wheeling self.

So getting across to the people will be one of his major problems. But another may very well be just trying to make public speeches unmolested by cranks and demonstrators.

The New York Times recently reported the number of persons arrested each year for threatening a president has risen more than 500 per cent since the assassination of President John F. Kennedy in 1963.

The Secret Service, whose job is guarding the president, released figures showing the number of arrests for threats against the president rose from a one-year total of about 80 against Kennedy to about 425 against Johnson last year.

Raymond St. Jacques

By BOB THOMAS
AP Movie-Television Writer

HOLLYWOOD (AP) — Is there room for another Negro film star besides Sidney Poitier? Raymond St. Jacques thinks so, and he appears one of the likeliest candidates.

This month Poitier was named as one of the top 10 box-office stars by Motion Picture Herald, the first Negro to make that lofty list. There can be no doubt that Poitier is a solid money-maker, but racial leaders have complained that his position represents tokenism—that Poitier is the only Negro actor being given starring roles.

St. Jacques would quite frankly like to occupy the same position. He seems ideally qualified. He is tall, powerfully built with strong, pleasant features. A graduate of the Yale School of Drama, he was seasoned on the New York Stage, "The Blacks," "The Cool World," in television, "Rawhide," "Daniel Boone," "I Spy," etc. and films, "The Pawnbroker," "Mr. Moses."

This spring St. Jacques may well be helped toward his goal by an academy nomination for his supporting role in "The Comedians." He makes no attempt to hide his eagerness for it.

"I suppose I should be modest," he says, "but people keep saying I will get the nomination, and I must say I'd be delighted. A kudo such as that—the acceptance by one's peers—would be an enormous pleasure, making worthwhile all the sacrifices."

The actor admitted also that the nomination would help him toward his goal—lead roles in major productions. That has proved elusive so far, although he enjoys costar billing in the forthcoming "Madigan" with Henry Fonda and "Green Berets" with John Wayne. "Producers still aren't ready to cast a Negro in the major role of a film—except for Sidney," he observed. "And look how long it took Sidney to make it—15 years."

"When a part does come along for a Negro, the producers insist on casting it with an entertainer who has had two-million record sales or with the greatest athlete in the world. They are afraid to cast someone who is simply an actor. As a result, a Negro actor has to continually prove himself in role after role."

"And though the situation is getting better for Negro actors, it is dismal for the actresses. Most good roles in pictures are male anyway, but there seems to be absolutely no room for actresses who are Negro. Take Diana Sands. She must be one of the finest actresses in the country. But she can't get a tumble in pictures!"

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP) — New York Central Railroad officials today blamed a dragging equalizer bar for a 15-car derailment of a mail and express train at Wellington in Lorain County Monday.

Railroad spokesmen said the bar had become disengaged and was hanging down from the first derailed car in the 18-car train. Damage was estimated at $54,000 and officials said the blocked rail line was reopened at 5 p. m. Tuesday.

Ho Chi Minh's 'Peace'

After four months of absence from public view, President Ho Chi Minh has taken to the rostrum twice lately to remind the world that Hanoi has no more interest than ever in negotiating an end to the Vietnamese war.

He continues to demand that the United States and its allies pull out, leaving South Vietnam to the communists. He made it clear he was not interested in reaching a settlement short of that, military or political.

There was the usual insistence on military victory, and optimistic promises that it would be attained, along with gratitude for "firm support of friends in the five continents." And well he might be grateful, for it is such support—some by persons in the United States who would obstruct their own country's effort—that feeds his contempt for peace of any terms but the Viet Cong's.

Still, he serves one useful purpose which seems to escape his friends—and that is making clearer that those who champion Ho's terms as the way to peace are in reality championing a longer war.

The Business World

By JOHN CUNIFF

NEW YORK (AP)—This coming year of change should provide a solid test for the most glamorous idea in corporate management, the free form concept.

Free form is a term applied to companies which orient themselves to opportunities rather than industries. They seek profits where they can find them—in evolution, control, for example—rather than in specific industries.

Free form seeks not to stick to its last because to do so in this day of science, technology and transition is perhaps to end up last. "Whatever became of the country's big ice companies?" it asks.

It means a company in the major industry might spot opportunities for profits in greeting cards or plywood, and thus utilize its know-how and products more efficiently, or even in shipping or running a Job Corps center. A free concept company is always willing to take risks to keep growing.

To effect its plans, free form management usually buys a related company by offering its own stock. Because of this it never forgets stockholders or the price of its stock, both of which are essential to growth. It is responsive to stockholders; it keeps them informed.

In carrying out its concept, free form assigns as much importance to flexibility, creativity and initiative as the old management concept does to efficiency. And when it takes over an older company, a free form management attempts to motivate the older company to greater achievement.

It believes that the traditional market boundaries are restrictive, that a steel company should not limit itself to steel but should consider the entire market and perhaps diversify into plastics and even urban renewal.

The two most commonly used examples of the concept are Litton Industries and Textron, both of which have had enormous growth in the last decade, mostly through acquiring other companies, and which have taught managers of many other free form corporations.

Equity Research Associates, an independent investment research house that has studied Litton, Textron and other new management companies, identifies it this way:

"It is a philosophy rather than a type of corporate structure. It is 'opportunity oriented' toward the widest possible range of industries and products, whereas traditional management is 'industry oriented' toward particular markets, customers or techniques."

It is characterized, Equity says, by youth, entrepreneurial spirit—free form managers are committed to growth, which they participate in through stock ownership more so than salary—motivation, a small headquarters staff, a desire to return the top dollar to stockholders, the use of computers, a high degree of financial knowledge, and aggressive marketing.

What makes the free form concept of unusual importance is its development at the same time that old proprietary management is being phased out, at the same time the family run organization is giving way to professional management.

Today in History

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

Today is Thursday, Jan. 11, the 11th day of 1968. There are 355 days left in the year.

Today's highlight in History: On this date in 1943, during World War II, the United States and Britain relinquished extraterritorial rights in China.

On this date:

In 1757, the first secretary of the U. S. Treasury, Alexander Hamilton, was born on Nevis Island in the West Indies.

In 1785, the Continental Congress convened in New York.

In 1788, colonists for Ohio set out from Hartford, Conn.

In 1861, Alabama seceded from the Union.

In 1942, Japan invaded the Dutch East Indies.

In 1964, the U. S. government released a report describing cigarette smoking as a definite health hazard.

Ten years ago — A group of the nation's leading atomic reactor experts advised Congress that the Eisenhower administration's program for atomic-power development was inadequate.

Five years ago—31 independent African nations assured the United Nations they supported U. N. efforts to unify the Congo.

One year ago—Two Virginia surgeons said they had transplanted hearts from dead to live dogs. One predicted the first human transplant within five years.

Editor Leaves South Vietnam

SAIGON (AP) — Everett G. Martin, Saigon bureau chief of Newsweek magazine, left South Vietnam for Hong Kong today after South Vietnam's government refused to renew his visa.

Martin told well-wishers at the airport: "I think it's a very ominous thing for the American press corps. If the Vietnamese government is going to start intimidating us, trying to control what we are reporting back to the American people, this can't be. I hope it isn't a trend."

Although Westminster Abbey is now a place for the coronation of English kings and burial of famous British dead, it was built in the Middle Ages as a home for a group of Benedictine monks who lived a very simple life there.

Sheppard Back In Bay Village

CLEVELAND, Ohio (AP) — Samuel H. Sheppard and his wife, Ariane, were back at their home in suburban Bay Village today, and the 44-year-old osteopath reportedly is considering a return to practice here for the first time since the bluejean slaying of his first wife, Marilyn in 1954.

At Bay View Hospital, where his brothers Dr. Richard A. and Dr. Stephen N. Sheppard practice, the administrator said today he had heard Dr. Sheppard was back in Cleveland but that Sheppard had not visited the hospital or applied for reactivation on the staff.

A royal decree by King Tiridates in the 4th Century made Armenia the world's first Christian state, the National Geographic says. Tiridates was a convert of St. Gregory.

Raymond St. Jacques

By BOB THOMAS

AP Movie-Television Writer

HOLLYWOOD (AP) — Is there room for another Negro film star besides Sidney Poitier? Raymond St. Jacques thinks so, and he appears one of the likeliest candidates.

This month Poitier was named as one of the top 10 box-office stars by Motion Picture Herald, the first Negro to make that lofty list. There can be no doubt that Poitier is a solid money-maker, but racial leaders have complained that his position represents tokenism—that Poitier is the only Negro actor being given starring roles.

St. Jacques would quite frankly like to occupy the same position. He seems ideally qualified. He is tall, powerfully built with strong, pleasant features. A graduate of the Yale School of Drama, he was seasoned on the New York Stage, "The Blacks," "The Cool World," in television, "Rawhide," "Daniel Boone," "I Spy" etc. and films, "The Pawnbroker," "Mr. Moses."

This spring St. Jacques may well be helped toward his goal by an academy nomination for his supporting role in "The Comedians." He makes no attempt to hide his eagerness for it.

"I suppose I should be modest," he says, "but people keep saying I will get the nomination, and I must say I'd be delighted. A kudo such as that—the acceptance by one's peers—would be an enormous pleasure, making worthwhile all the sacrifices."

The actor admitted also that the nomination would help him toward his goal—lead roles in major productions. That has proved elusive so far, although he enjoys costar billing in the forthcoming "Madigan" with Henry Fonda and "Green Berets" with John Wayne.

"Producers still aren't ready to cast a Negro in the major role of a film—except for Sidney," he observed. "And look how long it took Sidney to make it—15 years."

"When a part does come along for a Negro, the producers insist on casting it with an entertainer who has had two million record sales or with the greatest athlete in the world. They are afraid to cast someone who is simply an actor. As a result, a Negro actor has to continually prove himself in role after role."

"And though the situation is getting better for Negro actors, it is dismal for the actresses. Most good roles in pictures are male anyway, but there seems to be absolutely no room for actresses who are Negro. Take Diana Sands. She must be one of the finest actresses in the country. But she can't get a tumble in pictures!"

Equalizer Bar Derailed Train

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP) — New York Central Railroad officials today blamed a dragging equalizer bar for a 15-car derailment of a mail and express train at Wellington in Lorain County Monday.

Railroad spokesmen said the bar had become disengaged and was hanging down from the first derailed car in the 18-car train. Damage was estimated at $54,000 and officials said the blocked rail line was reopened at 5 p. m. Tuesday.

McCarthy Opens Campaign Swing

LOS ANGELES (AP) — Sen. Eugene J. McCarthy, carrying his campaign for the Democratic presidential nomination to the nation's most populous state, says the Vietnam war has generated a spirit of "joylessness and fear" in America.

The Minnesota Democrat said the "frustrations of the poor and the unpleasantness of our cities cannot be separated" from the war.

McCarthy, who plans to run in several Democratic primaries, opened today a six day campaign swing through California.

His initial speech was prepared for delivery at a Los Angeles luncheon.

McCarthy said the war has distorted the nation's priorities. During the last two sessions of Congress total appropriations increased by $33 billion—all but

$2.6 billion of the total for defense program, he said.

In other political developments:

—A major Rhode Island supporter of Michigan Gov. George Romney who seeks the Republican nomination, said Romney's campaign is "not catching on."

—California Gov. Ronald Reagan said he can't imagine any circumstances under which he'd campaign in primaries for the GOP nomination.

—McCarthy asked the Federal Communication Commission to let his lawyers prove President Johnson is an active reelection candidate. This is a principal argument in McCarthy's effort to win free air time on the three major networks to reply to recently broadcast comments about him by the President.

Ashville News Report

Mrs. John Sabine — 983-7831

The Pythian Sisters of Ashville Temple No. 368 will meet Jan. 16, for their regular meeting. At this time the newly elected officers will be installed for the coming year. Serving as the Installing Officer will be Madge Baum with Francie Peters as Grand Senior and Marilyn Sabine as Grand Manager.

All members who attend the meeting are asked to bring a salad or sandwiches for refreshments.

Mrs. William (Louise) Lowe, former resident of Ashville, is now a hospital patient in Atlanta, Georgia. The Lowe family, with son Curtis, resided at the corner of East and Cherry Sts., while Mr. Lowe was stationed at Lockbourne Air Force Base. Their address is now 2008 Tudor Avenue, N.E., Atlanta, Georgia, 30307.

Newly elected president, Bill Fortner, was in charge of the program at the weekly Kiwanis meeting which was held Jan. 2, at the Bastian Coffee Shop. President Fortner gave the objectives of Kiwanis International for 1968 and also some of the highlights of the International Convention in Houston, Texas.

A new member, Jerry Neff, was accepted into the club at this meeting.

Past President Gene Vonins thanked all those who served on his committees and those who in any way helped with the past year. He said it was a most pleasant and memorable year for him.

Two dates were mentioned for the members to keep open for Kiwanis Club affairs. Jan. 21, a spaghetti dinner will be served by the Berwick Club at the Berwick Party Home and on Jan. 23, the local club will meet in the K of P Hall for the annual steak and bean supper.

The President's Party was held at the Berwick Party Home on Jan. 9.

Mr. and Mrs. John Crumley of Hilliards announce the birth of a son last Thursday. The Crumleys resided on Glenn Road when he was the band instructor at Teays Valley High School.

The Bastian Funeral Home ambulance made the following runs this past week; Jan. 3, took Robert Hastings to a doctors office in Columbus and returned him home; Jan. 4, took Edna Hoover to Berger Hospital and Leroy Hibbets of Lockbourne to hospital; Jan. 7, took Homer Hicks to Doctors Hospital and Jan. 9, took Harry Crossiey of Hamilton Meadows to Doctors Hospital.

Mr. Steve Cook, local Waterworks Superintendent, is one of the jurors for the Halleck murder trial being held in Circleville. During the daytime his duties will be performed by Don Thompson who may be contacted at 983-3140.

Mr. and Mrs. Herbert Seymour and Jeff and Jeff Athey returned home over the week end after vacationing in Florida.

Urge Legalized Bingo Games

CHARLESTON, W.Va. (AP) — Members of the state legislature have received mailed requests to legalize bingo as West Virginia's sole gambling concession for nonprofit organizations.

The letters are signed by Walter Caldwell of Fayetteville, who says he represents a group called the West Virginia Committee for Legal Bingo.

Fatality Recorded

PEARL HARBOR (AP) — The Pearl Harbor naval shipyard has recorded its first fatal industrial accident since 1958. The Navy said an electrician, Thomas Medeiros III, 30, was electrocuted while working on a switchbox below deck of the U.S. Navy survey ship Maury Jan 9.

NEW YORK (AP)—When a provocative play with instant personal involvement for every spectator is brilliantly performed, the result is a theatrical experience of almost unbearable intensity.

Such an event is "Exit the King," presented Tuesday night at Broadway's Lyceum theater by the Association of Producing Artists. It is another creative triumph for the group which has previously won lauds this season with the continuing repertory displays of "The Show-Off" and "Pantagloize."

Head Supported

CINCINNATI (AP) — City School Supt. Paul Miller, recently criticized for striking down teacher's pay hike hopes, was defended Wednesday by the board of education president.

President Harry Hopkins contended Miller has performed well under difficult conditions and "everything he has done bears out the wisdom of our original selection" of him.

The board head pointed out that teachers received wage boost twice in 1967. He said he would support Miller's decision not to grant the hikes because of lacking funds.

But if there is no ordinary plot—"He is going to die at the end of the play" we are told early — or melodramatic suspense, Ionesco pursues the discussion with absorbing sardonic relish.

In a time-collapsed vortex of decay, his man Berenger (who recurs as a character in other Ionesco plays) cries out:

"Why was I born, if it wasn't for ever?"

The answers he gets from his two wives (presumably the romatic and practical sides of feminine nature), a servant, a warrior-at-arms and his scientist, range the spectrum of opinion from sentiment to bluff deception to harsh disdain.

It is a wild chase after the old dilemma of human rans-ence.

To interpret the allegory, director Ellis Rabb is surrounded by players of deep dedication. Eva La Gallienne, as a queen of grim realism; Patricia Conolly, a tender consort; Richard Woods, the doctor; and Pamela Payton — Wright and Clayton Corzette as servants, would be hard to fault in any detail.

A truly remarkable portrayal, capped with a finale pantomime of masterful control, is given by Richard Easton as Berenger passing from hale maturity into hollow-eyed resignation.

"Exit the King" has been set a spare, soaring room of transparent plastic and scant props which, along with faint throbs of Conrad Suza music, enhance the words and performance.

CAMBRIDGE, Ohio (AP) — Patricia Stevens, 28, was indicted Wednesday by the Guernsey County Grand Jury on a charge of embezzling $6,945 from the county treasurer's office where she had been employed four years. Mrs. Stevens, mother of four, lives in Seneca.

Vote To Build Technical College

YOUNGSTOWN, Ohio (AP) — Trustees at Youngstown State University have voted to establish a two-year technical college within the university.

University President Albert L. Pugsley said Wednesday that construction funds could come from a state bond issue which probably will be placed on the May 7 ballot.

Ohio Surgeon Crash-Lands

CLYDE, N. Y. (AP) — An Ohio surgeon and his 13-year-old daughter flying home from Portland, Maine, crash-landed a single-engine Cessna 205 in a snow-covered corn field west of this Wayne County community Wednesday.

State Police said Dr. John Damiani, 43, of Warren, Ohio, and his daughter, Mary Ann, suffered minor bruises when the six-passenger plane skidded in the foot of snow on the field before it stopped. They were treated at Barber Hospital in nearby Lyns and released.

Looks Serious

LOOKS SERIOUS—In case you thought the presidential candidacy of Sen. Eugene McCarthy, D-Minn., was just a joke, look at this setup in New York. The sign stretches 80 feet beside the 12-foot likeness. It's the "Democratic Alternative Headquarters."

Exit The King

NEW YORK (AP)—When a provocative play with instant personal involvement for every spectator is brilliantly performed, the result is a theatrical experience of almost unbearable intensity.

Such an event is "Exit the King," presented Tuesday night at Broadway's Lyceum theater by the Association of Producing Artists. It is another creative triumph for the group which has previously won lauds this season with the continuing repertory displays of "The Show Off" and "Pantagloize."

The theme this time is far different from their content of family comedy and expressionist fantasy. Playwright Eugene Ionesco explores with morbid irony the approaching death of a bedraggled little monarch, a stand-in for everyman.

But if there is no ordinary plot—"He is going to die at the end of the play" we are told early — or melodramatic suspense, Ionesco pursues the discussion with absorbing sardonic relish.

Monrovia Garden Club Plans Therapy Program

Monrovia Garden Club members met Monday evening in the home of Mrs. Bruce Cochran for a regular session.

Mrs. Joe Sheets, vice president, opened the meeting with devotions. "Living by Faith in the New Year," was presented by Mrs. Francis Furniss, and followed with prayer.

Roll Call was answered by the 12 members present telling of a resolution for a new plant they would like to start. A card of cheer was signed by members to be sent to Mrs. Clarence Thomas who is a patient in Madison County Hospital, London.

A discussion was held concerning the therapy program at the Orient State School. The group agreed to have the committee set up a program for each month and to name a chairman. The date chosen for this month is Jan. 16, under the direction of Mrs. Sheets and Mrs. Loring Stoeer. All members are urged to attend.

Mrs. Shirley Anderson displayed a dried arrangement and explained the different kinds of flowers she had raised and dried for use in the arrangement.

Mrs. Stoeer presented a reading entitled "Carnation," the flower of the month. She also distributed schedules for the flower and plant sale to be conducted by the club this year.

Robert Sweet of the Mt. Sterling Flower Garden was guest speaker. He showed slides and explained the many different and new varieties of plants and flowers that will be available this year. He also gave some planting guides and tips for flower growers.

At the close of the meeting refreshments were served by Mrs. Cochran assisted by Mrs. John O'Day and Miss Freda Clarridge.

The next meeting Feb. 5, featuring a workshop will be held in the Five Points Methodist Church basement. Mrs. Lloyd Neff, Mrs. Clark McCafferty, Mrs. John Dick and Mrs. Stoeer will be hostesses.

Home League Makes Future Project Plans

The recently formed Children's Home League met Tuesday evening in the home of Mrs. Gary Hinton, 136 Park St.

The business session was conducted by Mrs. Hinton, chairman. She stated that Ralph Starkey will present the group with a list of items needed at the Children's Home and invited them to visit the home.

The greater part of the evening was spent in cutting out doll clothes, which will be assembled and sold this summer as a club project.

A products party will be held Jan. 17, in the home of Mrs. Hinton with refreshments brought by the members.

Discussion was held concerning redecorating a room at the Children's Home, which will include paint, curtains, and bedspreads.

Miss Theresa Connolly was welcomed as a new member. The travel prize was won by Mrs. Gary McCain. A dessert course was served at the close of the meeting by the hostess.

The next meeting will be held Feb. 13.

Lynda Bird 9th Among 'Best-Dressed'

NEW YORK (AP) — Lynda Bird Robb is named on the "best-dressed" list for 1967, maintaining White House representation as her mother, Mrs. Lyndon B. Johnson, was dropped from the annual roster.

Lynda was voted No. 9 on the list—just ahead of another newcomer, Mrs. Ronald Reagan, wife of the California governor—in the balloting by some 2,000 persons connected with the fashion industry.

First place went to Mrs. Wyatt Cooper, the former Gloria Vanderbilt, who took over the spot held by Princess Le Radziwill, Mrs. John F. Kennedy's sister, in the 1966 list.

Mrs. Kennedy was "promoted" to the Fashion Hall of Fame in 1965 and has not appeared on the list since. Neither has Mrs. Dwight D. Eisenhower since she left the White House.

The list, which has no official standing, is drawn up by publicist Eleanor Lambert. The announcement said Mrs. Robb "replaced" her mother who was first named on the list in 1967.

With Mrs. Cooper in first place, the list follows:

1. Mrs. Carter A. Burden, New York socialite.
2. Mrs. Charlotte Ford Natchos of the automobile family.
3. Mrs. Harilaos Theodoropoulos, wife of a Greek shipping magnate.
4. Mrs. Angier Biddle Duke, wife of the American ambassador to Spain.
5. Princess Radziwill.
6. Lauren Bacall, the actress.
7. Mrs. Henry Ford II, second wife of the auto heir.
8. Mrs. Charles Spittal Robb (Lynda Bird Johnson).
9. Mrs. Ronald Reagan.
10. The Hon. Mrs. Angus Ogilvy (Princess Alexandra of Kent).

Reds Have Twin Objectives In Vietnam

By PETER ARNETT
Associated Press Writer
SAIGON (AP) — Vietnam's Communist high command has committed its military forces to a burgeoning nationwide offensive in the first days of 1968. It has two major objectives, the most experienced observers believe.

One is to undermine the confidence of the Saigon government, particularly in regions where pacification has been a priority.

The second objective is the severe punishment of allied forces, testing their morale and writing headlines in the world's press. Three times more Americans were killed in the first week of 1968 than in the first week of 1967.

The objective of punishing allied forces was sought and partly gained by the Communists in the vicious border fighting at Dak To, Loc Ninh and at the demilitarized zone in the closing months of 1967.

This strategy has been continued into 1968 with a series of violent Communist actions against allied troops along the central coast where three North Vietnamese divisions are conducting forays into the rich coastal valleys. An omen came with the savage attack on two South Vietnamese marine battalions by the Viet Cong just 10 minutes after the new year began.

Allied commanders expected the regimental-size assaults along the Cambodian border in November and December. They had plenty of intelligence on the enemy intentions.

Allied field commanders did not expect the resurgence of North Vietnamese divisions thought to have been destroyed earlier in the year along the central coast, and the sudden appearance of locally recruited hard-core Viet Cong battalions that had been lying low through 1967 and appeared to have disintegrated.

Two of these local battalions occupied the provincial capital of Hau Nghia, west of Saigon, Monday morning and raised the red and gold Communist flag on a building. Another battalion overran the district town of Tuy Phuoc, near Qui Nhon, reputedly the most pacified district in the country. The Communists dragged the district chief from his house and killed him.

Other battalions long thought dead bounced back to life in the central highlands and the Mekong Delta.

Senior U.S. officers have described the past week as one of the most intense of the war.

Communist forces have taken heavy losses, particularly in the border battles. American forces generally dish out much more than they get, and while some U.S. units have been severely punished, morale remains high.

The Communists have had more success in undermining the confidence of the population in the central government. This was particularly obvious in the villages around Tan Uyen, the district town occupied north of Bien Hoa, and at Hau Nghia, the provincial capital similarly occupied.

People in both these areas were sullen and worried. Shop owners, started sleeping nights in Saigon. Chiefs of hamlets stayed away from their villages.

The effect of a large enemy force entering a pacified region was nowhere more pronounced than in Tuy Phuoc, the cradle of pacification in Vietnam, a region which serves as a pilot project for the revolutionary development programs all over Vietnam.

This district, just north of Qui Nhon on the central coast, had 100 of its 114 villages not only under government control but actively defending themselves with locally recruited home guardsmen.

Hocking Hills Winter Hike Set Jan. 20

LOGAN, Ohio (AP)—The annual Hocking Hills winter hike has been set for Saturday, Jan. 20, the Ohio Division of Parks and Recreation says.

The five-mile trip, co-sponsored by the division and the Buckeye Trail Association, starts at 10 a. m. at Old Man's Cave and will end about 3 p. m. at Ash Cave with a break for lunch scheduled at noon at Cedar Falls.

The division chief, Melvin J. Rebholz, said more than a dozen expert outdoorsmen will be on hand to lead small groups along the cliff and creek-side trail. Among these will be Dick Moseley, Dr. Victor Whitacre, Charles Goslin, Emmett Conway, Bill Price, Bill Miller, Bob Merkle, Bob Paton, Norv Hall and Ralph Ramey.

A new section of woodland trail recently completed from Cedar Falls to Ash Cave will be followed for the first time on this trip.

Warm clothes, a good sack lunch and plenty of color film for the camera fans are suggested by the leaders. Shuttle service will be available at the end of the hike at Ash Cave to return drivers to their cars at Old Man's Cave.

Then a North Vietnamese battalion moved in late October. Soon came a local Viet Cong battalion that had hidden in the outskirts of the district for three years.

You are required to answer the said petition by the 17th day of February, 1968 or judgment by default will be rendered against you. Lemuel B. Weldon, Attorney for Administrator W.W.A. Goldthrit Weaver, Administrator W.W.A. of the estate of Lloyd Weaver, deceased.
Dec. 14, 21, 28, 1967; Jan. 4, 11, 18, and 25, 1968.

Within one month Tuy Phuoc began slipping from the Saigon government's grasp, according to U.S. advisers based there. The district town was overrun Dec. 22, the district chief of three years killed, and the Viet Cong flag run halfway up the district flag pole. Hamlet and village chiefs rushed to sleep at Qui Nhon at night.

"It was a shocking defeat for us," said the district adviser, Maj. Elden Wright of Morgan town, W. Va., who had spent a year at Tuy Phuoc. He told his superiors that unless troops were sent into his region pacification work of three years would be lost. Wright says only time will tell whether the pacification program will survive the onslaught.

Intelligence officers expect the Communist offensive to keep unwinding. They say many enemy units have still not been committed to battle and that the initiative rests with the enemy.

"We just don't know how far they intend to go, or what they really want. They might just be crazy enough to think they can beat us militarily," a U.S. brigadier general commented as he scanned battle reports this week.

Wilson To Check Race Feeler

TOKYO (AP) — British Foreign Secretary George Brown said today that Prime Minister Harold Wilson will check out North Vietnamese Foreign Minister Nguyen Duy Trinh's reported peace feeler during Wilson's coming visit to Moscow.

"If there is a change," Brown told the Foreign Correspondents' Club of Japan, "let us decide how to use it."

Jobless Rate Shows Decline

WASHINGTON (AP) — Employment continued rising in December, rounding out 1967 with a record high average of 74.4 million Americans at work.

At the same time, the unemployment rate dropped back down last month to 3.7 per cent of the civilian labor force and wound up the year with a 3.8 per cent jobless average.

This matched last year's 13-year low unemployment figure.

Lynda Bird 9th Among 'Best-Dressed'

NEW YORK (AP) — Lynda Bird Robb is named on the "best-dressed" list for 1967, maintaining White House representation as her mother, Mrs. Lyndon B. Johnson, was dropped from the annual roster.

Lynda was voted No. 9 on the list—just ahead of another newcomer, Mrs. Ronald Reagan, wife of the California governor—in the balloting by some 2,000 persons connected with the fashion industry.

First place went to Mrs. Wyatt Cooper, the former Gloria Vanderbilt, who took over the spot held by Princess Le Radziwill, Mrs. John F. Kennedy's sister, in the 1966 list.

Mrs. Kennedy was "promoted" to the Fashion Hall of Fame in 1965 and had not appeared on the list since. Neither has Mrs. Dwight D. Eisenhower since she left the White House.

The list, which has no official standing, is drawn up by publicist Eleanor Lambert. The announcement said Mrs. Robb "replaced" her mother who was first named on the list in 1967.

Parent-Home Clinic Works With Deaf Children

By DON REEDER
Associated Press Writer
KANSAS CITY, Kan. (AP) — The curly haired 3-year-old boy watched closely as his mother mixed flour in a bowl on the kitchen table.

"Let's make a cake," she tells the youngster in carefully distinct syllables.

The mother repeats the words three times as the boy gazes intently at her face. At last he grins and chirps, "Cake."

An ordinary domestic scene? Not quite.

The child is almost totally deaf, and the two-story frame house is not their's but a parent-home clinic established by the University of Kansas Medical Center.

One of four such projects across the nation financed by federal funds, the house is used to show parents in a familiar atmosphere how to help teach children with impaired hearing.

"We tried for years to tell parents in our offices how to do it, but it just didn't work out very well in many cases," explained Dr. June Miller, audiologist and director of the medical center's hearing and speech department.

"In a home situation, the parents can see clearly how and what they must do to help. We're very enthusiastic about it."

Established only a few months ago, the program involves 31 youngsters with varying degrees of hearing loss. Some of the children also have visual problems, are slow learners or have other handicaps.

Most of the boys and girls are under 3. Experts would like to begin the training at ages as early as 6 months, or as soon as a baby is known to have impaired hearing.

A hearing clinician works with the mother or father—often both—to coach them on helping the child understand others and ultimately learn to speak. Parents bring their child on regular visits to the home center until the youngster is ready to enroll in a special preschool program.

"The big problem is getting the parents to simply talk to the child of something that interests him—anything to get the child to look at them," Dr. Miller explained.

"Adults should talk in a normally loud voice, often and meaningfully to draw the child's attention."

When they first come to the home center, some of the deaf youngsters seldom look at their parents when the latter speak. They live in a silent world of their own.

But in surroundings familiar to both of them, parent and child are shown how to communicate while playing games or performing routine household tasks.

"It's a lot of work," said one mother.

"You've got to keep repeating the same thing over and over until she understands it. But I've learned."

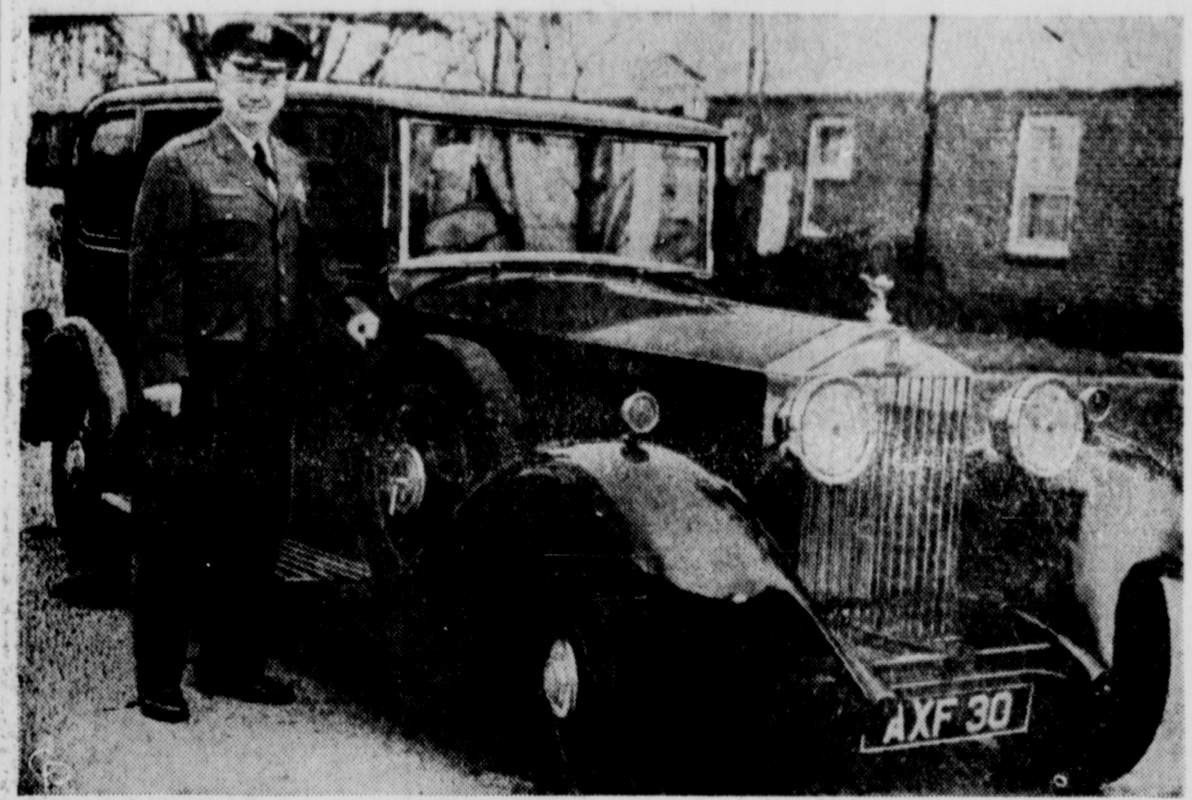

"Now at home when Mary is around I make a point of explaining everything I'm doing. It's amazing how quickly they pick things up."

The home center uses a television videotape device to film parents working with their children. The film is replayed immediately while the instructor points out how to improve the lesson.

Dr. Miller noted although about four of every 100 children have hearing problems and one of 300 suffers severe impairment, there are still a lot of misconceptions about deafness.

Some adults forbid their children to play with deaf youngsters, because they're afraid the disability is catching.

Others are ashamed of their child's hearing problem, believing it to be divine retribution for sins of the parents or even grandparents.

Arraign Lawyer In Seizure Of Bogus Bills

NEW YORK (AP)—A Miami Beach lawyer was arraigned here today on charges of shipping $4.1 million in counterfeit $100 bills from Miami to New York.

The Secret Service said two other men were arrested in Ohio as members of a ring which planned a deal for $50 million in fake money.

Asst. U.S. Atty. Raymond B. Grunwald called the seizure of the $4.1 million the largest single seizure of counterfeit money in the history of the Secret Service.

The lawyer, Joel Lee, 39, was arrested Tuesday night at Kennedy Airport here as he was returning to Miami, Grunwald said. The fake money had been seized at the airport on Dec. 29, he stated.

PICKAWAY GRANGE YOUTH

Members of three Granges were present for the monthly meeting of the Pickaway Grange Youth organization held last night at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Phil Judy.

The group voted to begin rehearsals for a demonstration team this year instead of entering state competition's.

Plans were made for the card party to be held February 10, at the fairgrounds.

Following the business meeting a color slide tour of Korea and California was given by the host.

The February council meeting will be announced at a later time according to Paul Dunkle, Pickaway County youth chairman.

Parent-Home Clinic Works With Deaf Children

By DON REEDER
Associated Press Writer
KANSAS CITY, Kan. (AP) — The curly haired 3-year-old boy watched closely as his mother mixed flour in a bowl on the kitchen table.

"Let's make a cake," she tells the youngster in carefully distinct syllables.

The mother repeats the words three times as the boy gazes intently at her face. At last he grins and chirps, "Cake."

An ordinary domestic scene? Not quite.

The child is almost totally deaf, and the two-story frame house is not their's but a parent-home clinic established by the University of Kansas Medical Center.

NEW YORK (AP) — "The Avengers" seems to have changed its character radically in the months it has been away from ABC. Or maybe somebody just picked the wrong episode of the suave, sophisticated British-made series for its premiere show as a midseason replacement.

The opening program Wednesday night was strictly kid stuff, a floodlight that reduced a limousine to the size of a toy model, and a human being to the stature of a toothpick.

Mr. Steed was accidentally cut down to a minimum when the bad guys were stealing a prototype of a revolutionary tank by shrinking it and carrying it off in an overcoat pocket. But Mr. Steeds' plight was lucky, because he was able to come to the rescue of his colleague, Mrs. Peel, when that athletic lady had been trussed like a capon by the villains. He managed it, incidentally, with a letter opener, which seemed the size of a steel girder in his tiny condition, and cut her bonds.

And as soon as the magic beam restored him to normal size, Mrs. Peel was shrunk, and received her turn to rescue him. Finally, they shrunk the heavies and caught them in Mr. Steed's derby.

This is the sort of science fiction nonsense we might let go by on shows like "Voyage to the Bottom of the Sea," or "I Dream of Jeannie," but not on a droll and dry show like "The Avengers."

Of course, the series used to be broadcast in late evening spots on the ABC schedule, a time when the vast majority of viewers are presumed to be adults. Now it comes on at an early evening hour, and all three networks concede that the period from 7:30 to 9 belongs to the youngest members of the audience.

But if "The Avengers" is converted into a sort of child's fantasy series, no matter how smoothly or tongue-in-cheek it is handled, it is bound to lose that hard-core audience that made it a success as a replacement on earlier occasions.

The time of President Lyndon Johnson's state of the union address next Wednesday night could not be more unfortunate from the standpoint of ABC.

The network has scheduled a special two-hour production of "Laura," starring Lee Bouvier

CAIRO (AP) — When you telephone the American Embassy in Cairo the greeting is: "Spanish Embassy."

No, it's not a wrong number. The red and yellow banner of Spain is flying from the building. The full response should be, "Spanish Embassy, American interests section."

Ever since Egypt broke relations with the United States at the outbreak of war last June, Spain has been the official custodian of U.S. interests here. The personnel includes a limited number of American nationals, and some veteran Egyptian employees, operating under the Spanish flag.

This is a relatively new wrinkle in diplomatic nonrelations, developed in recent years in this part of the world. In old-style diplomacy, a break in relations was complete. In Havana, for example, all the Americans left and the Swiss moved in to take over the U.S. Embassy on Washington's behalf. This is the sort of break that happens in

Marine Killed

WASHINGTON (AP)—Marine Lance Cpl. Danny R. Vance of Cleveland has been killed in action in Vietnam, the Defense Department said Wednesday.

Radziwill, Jacqueline Kennedy's sister, in her television debut. ABC has done an enormous amount of publicity on the show and interest in it was believed to have run high.

ABC postponed its announcement about the way it plans to handle the President's speech until today.

NBC and CBS will cover the speech live, starting at about 9 p.m., and follow it up with analysis and reaction programs.

Neither NBC nor CBS had special programs scheduled.

This is the second time recently that a widely publicized ABC special has run into hard luck. Carol Channing's special program was postponed twice because of a TV technicians' strike and still has not been broadcast.

Recommended tonight: "Great Explorations," NBC, 7:30 - 8:30 EST, documentary with astronaut John Glenn and a party following the African trail of reporter Stanley when, almost 100 years ago, he hunted for Dr. Livingstone.

case of war, too.

Such a full break did not happen here. Instead, through an exchange of formal notes via Madrid and New Delhi, it was agreed that some Americans would stay on in Cairo to handle embassy affairs under the Spanish flag, while some Egyptians remained in Washington under the Indian diplomatic cloak.

In addition, the two countries maintained consular relations.

Under these agreements Donald C. Bergus, a bluff and hearty career diplomat with many highly placed Egyptian friends from previous duty here, heads a staff which now has grown to 14 other Americans.

Bergus is the American ambassador in everything but name. He has diplomatic status as a member of the Spanish list. In all official business, Bergus and his staff are meticulous in identifying themselves as part of the Spanish Embassy.

The choice of Spain was a happy one. The Spanish ambassador is the widely respected Angel Sagaz Zubelzu, who has

Teaching Nuns May Refuse To Return

LOS ANGELES (AP) — Teaching nuns who wear modern dress in defiance of Roman Catholic leaders say they may refuse to return to their classrooms next fall unless they can abandon other regulations they call out of date.

The mother general, Sister Anita Caspary, has written a letter to the parents of students in 38 parochial schools in the Los Angeles archdiocese, saying the nuns had been asked to quit. James Francis Cardinal McIntyre denied Wednesday that they have been dismissed.

Sister Anita said her order's modern ideas follow in spirit a directive Pope Paul VI issued after the Second Vatican Council.

"The holy father urged all religious communities to examine and renew their way of life and to engage in wide-ranging experimentation to achieve their renewal," she wrote to 7,500 parents this week.

"The question of uniform dress is an obvious but minor part of the discussion," wrote Sister Anita of her disagreement with Catholic leaders.

"More central to the discussion are regulations for a fixed time for rising and retiring, fixed hours for prescribed prayers, a highly centralized mode of local house government. This mode of living may have suited former times but it is a hindrance to present demands of apostolic life in schools or hospitals."

DEAR ABBY: My father, who is 82, wants to remarry. This will be his fourth wife since Mother died six years ago. His lady friend is 79. She seems pleasant and intelligent enough, although she, too, has had three divorces in the past 10 years.

Question. My brother and I are paying for Dad's support. He is still able to enjoy life and look after himself, but at times he acts a little strange. Should we give our blessings to this marriage? We want to be fair, but, oh, dear!

DEAR ABBY: I would not encourage anyone who "acts a little strange" to marry. Especially at age 82, with a history of three divorces in six years.

DEAR ABBY: The other evening I very nearly hit a little boy on a bicycle. I was almost on top of him before I saw him. His bicycle had no reflectors!

Please print this as a reminder to parents of youngsters who have bicycles. I am not selling "reflectors." They can buy luminous paint and "decorate" the child's bicycle so it will be seen by motorists at night.

Every time I think of how close I came to hitting that little boy, I tremble.

U.S. Catholic Bishops Criticize Changes

WASHINGTON (AP) — The nation's Roman Catholic bishops have criticized many aspects of the contemporary life of their church, including priests who desert their vows to marry or who agitate for the creation of a married clergy.

They hold out no hope the church will abandon its traditional "insistence... upon the requirement for priestly celibacy." Religious assent is a demand made of clergy and laymen alike, the bishops said.

In a 25,000-word collective pastoral letter—one of the few ever issued on so sweeping a subject by top church leaders in America—the bishops said they wish to set a course allowing for lay participation "somewhere between the prevailing, but far from universal silence of the past and the occasional strident confusion of the present."

The letter issued Wednesday reasserted traditional loyalty and obedience to the church and its hierarchy and appeals for a "renewal of that love of the church that has so characterized the faithful of all ages." It warned against "impetuous applications" of the teachings of the recent Vatican Council.

While not mentioning by name jazz masses or the setting up of experimental forms of worship, the letter appeared to have such contemporary occurrences in mind in saying:

"With sadness we notice that some today, using the noble word 'charism' (a claim of personal authority on the basis of spiritual guidance) or employing theology almost as therapy, ridicule the church and, under the guise of being contemporary, seem hostile to everything except their own views," the letter stated.

Never in the church's past, the bishops said, "did she really trust in princes and in no future moment will she rely, in fact, on the people's pleasure or the judgment of the crowd."

The bishops noted a "crisis in priestly life" and declared some priests "have not only lost their own vision but have sought to shatter the ideals of others and made a public display of their defects."

Many priests, the letter said, are subject to loneliness and "disturbing doubts about the worth of their lives." These same doubts, it adds, "must especially afflict, nowadays, many in the armed forces."

In an apparent reply to talk among some priests of the eventual possibility of the church granting them the right to marry, the bishops maintain laymen and clergy alike must respect church doctrine and decisions laying "renewed insistence" on the requirements for priestly celibacy.

While the Vatican Council sought to give laymen a greater role in the affairs of the church, the letter said, "no one would maintain that an individual layman or all the laity together should be heard by the Christian community in the same way that the Pope... or the College of Bishops are to be heard."

Turning to the church's affirmation of social action and social justice, the bishops declared: "If Catholic performance does not match Catholic promise, then truly we shall have failed. If our deeds contradict our statements, then we shall have doubly sinned."

Moves Toward Rocky Continue

WASHINGTON (AP) — Sen. Mark O. Hatfield, R-Ore., says New York Gov. Nelson A. Rockefeller's position is flexible enough to unite Republicans on the Vietnam issue if he should become the party's presidential nominee.

Hatfield, a critic of President Johnson's Vietnam policies, said in an interview he does not believe that Rockefeller's general support of the course Johnson has pursued in Asia would preclude him from offering alternatives.

"I think Gov. Rockefeller's position on Vietnam is flexible," Hatfield said Wednesday. "I would have no hesitancy in supporting him if he were the nominee."

The Oregon senator added he isn't taking sides in the nomination contest.

Rockefeller's brother, Gov. Winthrop Rockefeller of Arkansas, cheered on Wednesday Maryland Gov. Spiro T. Agnew's move to draft the New Yorker.

But other Republican governors generally are waiting to see if the outcome of the March 12 New Hampshire primary moves Rockefeller away from his noncandidate status.

If Michigan Gov. George Romney should be walloped by Nixon in that test, as current polls seem to indicate, Rockefeller would face a decision on whether to respond favorably to the movements springing up across the country to draft him for the nomination.

The action could come in a decision on whether to sign a non-candidate affidavit withdrawing his name if a state commission places it on the ballot in Wisconsin's April 2 primary. The withdrawal deadline there is Feb. 29.

However, if Romney took a shellacking in New Hampshire, Rockefeller would have until March 15 to decide what to do about the May 14 Nebraska primary and until March 22 to act on the May 28 Oregon primary.

Nobody expects Romney to quit, even if he loses heavily in New Hampshire, at least until he has tested his vote appeal in Wisconsin. So if there is any Rockefeller move it probably will have to be taken without any formal release from his

Mini Gold Rush Hits In London

LONDON (AP)—A mini gold rush developed in the London bullion market today, and the price of the metal surged up more than 2½ cents when the Bank of England was unable to fully satisfy demand.

Market sources said the Bank, which operates the seven-nation international gold pool, was evidently caught by surprise at the sudden rise in demand after weeks of comparatively minor trading.

The price set at the daily fixing at N.M. Rothschild and Sons was $35.17, up 2½ cents on Wednesday's price.

Dealers emphasized that demand for the metal today was nowhere near that of the gold rushes in November and December when demand reached 100 tons and more a day.

One dealer said the demand today began even before the price fixing and continued in later dealings to send the price up another cent, to $35.18 an ounce.

New Holland Bank Re-Elects Officers

The First National Bank of New Holland re-elected directors and officers at the annual meeting Tuesday.

The following directors were re-elected: Harry Armstrong as chairman; Joseph Bryan, president; Joseph Owens, vice president; Roy L. Stewart, Richard Kirkpatrick and McKinley Kirk. William M. Davidson was re-named manager and secretary.

President Joseph Bryan reported an increase in earnings during 1967 and noted a 50-cent dividend declared and paid to stockholders.

ONG Armory Burglarized

Equipment was stolen from the trailer office at the site of the new Tarlton Armory in Fairfield County.

The missing items were property of the American General Corp., contractors of the new building. They included two gauges, a burning torch, and 100 feet of welding hose.

Entrance was gained to the trailer office when a hasp was pried from the door, according to the Fairfield County Sheriff's Dept. which is investigating the theft.

The new armory will service both the Lancaster and Circleville units of the Ohio National Guard.

DETROIT (AP)—Ten General Motors plants in Michigan, Ohio, Indiana and New York will be struck next Tuesday or Wednesday unless local issues are settled, the United Auto Workers said Wednesday.

About 65,000 workers are involved. One of the plants is at Defiance, Ohio.

DEAR ABBY: Me and my big mouth. Now I've really done it. My little 4-year-old granddaughter asked me if the stork really dropped her down the chimney, and I laughed and said no. Then she asked me how she got here, and I simply told her that she grew from a tiny seed in her Mommy's tummy. Now what was so terrible about that?

My daughter-in-law is very angry with me because she's afraid the child will ask her how the seed got there. My son has sided with his wife and I am in the doghouse.

Abby, I cannot see putting off telling a child what he will eventually learn anyway. But what am I to do about my son and his wife? I don't like being on the outs with them, but I think they are wrong, wrong, wrong.

DEAR MODERN: I happen to agree with you. First, try to educate your son and his wife to your way of thinking. It is far healthier for the child. Should you fail (heaven forbid)

College Basketball Action Hot and Heavy

By ED SCHUYLER JR.
Associated Press Sports Writer

Every basketball coach is happy to have an all-around player on his team, and St. Bonaventure's Larry Weise must be ecstatic over Bob Lanier.

The 6-foot-10 sophomore, the team's leading scorer and rebounder, not only scored 25 points and grabbed 15 rebounds Wednesday night, he also blocked eight shots and stole the ball six times as the unbeaten Bonnies defeated DePaul 77-67 for their 12th straight.

DePaul, behind 41-29 at half-time in the game at Olean, N.Y., closed to within five points with 13 minutes left. But then, with Lanier stealing the ball and blocking shots, the seventh-ranked Bonnies pulled away.

Lanier, who hit on 10 of 12 shots from the field, got scoring help from Billy Butler, with 20, and John Hayes, with 15. Al Zetsche led DePaul with 23.

Third-ranked North Carolina overcame an eight-point deficit in the second half to edge North Carolina State at Raleigh, N.C., and take over first place in the Atlantic Coast Conference.

The Tar Heels, the only other members of the Associated Press Top Ten to see action, were paced by Larry Miller's 13 rebounds and 17 points as they built their ACC record to 3-0 and their over-all mark to 10-1.

Louisville threw a full court press against home team Memphis State and rolled to its fourth straight victory, a 78-58 Missouri Valley Conference triumph.

Jimmy King scored 21. Butch Beard 20 and Wes Unseld 16 for the Tigers, now 3-4 over-all and 4-0 in the MVC.

St. John's, N.Y., behind by eight points with five minutes remaining, tied the game at 59-59 on two foul shots with one second left in regulation time, and then went on to beat Georgetown 65-61 at Washington.

And, Denver did something it hasn't accomplished in 10 years, beating Colorado State University at Fort Collins, 65-59. It was Denver's first success at Fort Collins since February, 1957.

Other road victories saw East Carolina nip William & Mary 71-70, Marshall outlasted Morris Harvey 101-93 and St. Francis, Pa., edged Steubenville 77-73.

In home-court triumphs, Air Force smashed Doane 109-69, Maryland downed West Virginia 79-75, South Carolina drubbed Wake Forest 88-73, Davidson pounded George Washington 107-75, Wofford beat Furman 71-68, Penn State walloped Gettysburg 84-47, Notre Dame whipped

Detroit 83-63, Connecticut trounced New Hampshire 96-70 and Tampa shaded Miami, Fla., 78-76.

In a light Ohio schedule, a couple of teams were upset. Wittenberg employed a control-type game in stopping Central State 60-58, and the Crusaders only their second defeat in nine games.

Ken Thomas hit on seven of 10 field shots en route to 20 points to pace Wittenberg, 5-7.

And Findlay was beaten only for the second time, losing 85-71 to Ohio Northern. The Oilers now 9-2, tried 98 field goals, but connected on only 31.

In the others, Larry Lewis led St. Francis, Pa., past Steubenville 77-73; Dave Fross poured in 24 points in Malone's 74-59 victory over Thiel, and Northwood, Ind., belted Wilberforce 98-79.

Pipers Take Eastern Lead From Muskies

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

The Pittsburgh Pipers made the most of the three-point field goal while the Minnesota Muskies were having trouble getting even the conventional two-points, and now there is a new leader in the American Basketball Association's Eastern Division.

Pittsburgh, which had trailed Minnesota by percentage points, took a one-game lead by edging Dallas 123-120 in overtime Wednesday night as the Muskies lost to Indianapolis 105-79.

The Pipers, winning for the 17th time in 18 games, fell behind by four points in the overtime but then cashed in on three three-point baskets and went on to win. Regulation play had ended in 110-110 tie.

Connie Hawkins scored 26 and Charlie Williams 24 for Pittsburgh. John Beasley poured 34 and Player-Coach Cliff Hagan 29 for Dallas.

Minnesota scored only 25 points in the first half, a league low, and made only 27 of 108 field goal attempts in being trounced by Indiana.

Bob Netolicky led Indiana with 28 points and Roger Brown added 27. Gary Keller topped the Muskies with 15.

In the only other ABA action, Houston nipped Anaheim 122-120 in overtime and Denver topped Kentucky 99-83.

Ice Fishing Good In Buckeye State

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP)—Gov. James A. Rhodes will walk on Lake Erie off Catawba State Park next Wednesday in a ceremony officially opening the State's ice fishing season.

The governor will drop a line through a hole in the ice near the west shore of Catawba Peninsula in the event sponsored by the Port Clinton, Vacationland and Sandusky Chamber of Commerce to promote ice fishing.

The governor's plans call for fishing from 9:30 a. m. to 11:30 a. m. followed by a luncheon given by the sponsors.

The ice off Catawba is now eight to 12 inches thick, the Ohio Department of Natural Resources reports. The department estimates that ice fishing is a $300 million-a-year business in Ohio.

State wildlife officials reported good Lake Erie fishing at Sandusky Bay, Catawba State Park and Mouse Island, with yellow perch being taken with small minnows on weighted spinners just off the lake bottom.

Elsewhere, the wildlife office gave these reports:

Central Ohio—Crappies, bluegills and some catfish being taken at Indian Lake on minnows, worms and mousies.

Northwest Ohio—Yellow perch 7-11½ inches long being taken at Lima reservoirs with small minnows and perch eyes in early afternoon. Pond 27 at Kildear Wildlife area was yielding northern pike on large minnows.

Southwest Ohio—Stone Lick Lake had good ice and crappies and bluegills being caught with warworms late in the day. Other lakes had good ice, but less promising fishing.

Southeast Ohio—Good bluegills being caught at Burr Oak on mealworms, waxworms and mousies, as well as some bass on minnows.

Northeast Ohio—Chain pickerel and bluegills being taken at Spender Wildlife area's lake on minnows and mousies in late afternoon.

Greenfield, Westfall Provide CHS Tigers with Formidable Opposition

Powerful Greenfield, twice beaten this year, brings an array of talent to the new Circleville High School gymnasium Friday.

Presently deadlocked for the lead in the South Central Ohio League with Wilmington and Miami Trace, the Highland County Panthers sport the most productive offense on the circuit.

Their two losses this year have been by a total of three points, and include an opening defeat at the hands of Portsmouth, 74-72, and a SCO defeat by Miami Trace last Friday, 69-68.

In Bob Bristley, a smooth 6-2 cager who can operate equally well at either guard or forward, and in 6-5 center Steve Seig, the McClain squad has two of the best players in the league.

But Greenfield is no two man team with Rick Smith, a senior guard averaging over ten points a game, and Larry Stricker also hitting near the double figure mark in most games. To go with the starting five, there is plenty of bench strength.

Hillsboro Coach Vern Hooper commented last week that all he needed to make a good squad was "a couple of Greenfield's castoffs."

Expected to win the league handily because of the overall strength, size and speed, they were upset by Miami Trace's super defensive effort last week.

With the three first place teams all playing second division opposition this week Greenfield will have to win all of the games in the second round for the league crown.

Friday's game will be played in the new high school gymnasium.

On Saturday, the action switches to the Mill Street gymnasium, with Westfall coming to town.

The Mustangs consistently have one of the top followings in the county, and a game with any of its county opponents is almost always played before a full house.

The Mill Street facility will accommodate nearly a thousand more fans than will the new high school.

Westfall's leading scorer is 6-1 guard Charles Palmer. Andy Hamman, the other senior guard, and junior Ed Cornwell add plenty of balance to the scoring.

Tony Lightle, the Mustang center, is the defensive and rebounding specialist of the squad and also beefs up the scoring punch.

DENNY Fletcher has had the other starting position most of the season and last week proved his scoring potential with ten second half points against Union.

If recovered from a recent auto accident, Gene Carfrey will also be available to Coach Paul Hoskins.

Circleville will be going with a pair of sophomores, Charlie Jackson and Ty Ankrum; a junior, Dave Horst; and two seniors, Jeff Steele and Rick Congrove.

Last week against Hillsboro the Circleville Tigers had their best first quarter performance of the season, outscoring the Indians, 22-14. However, the Indians bounced back in the second to take an eight point lead, and Circleville could never quite catch up, although they played on even terms for the remainder of the tilt.

Coach Chuck Hill will be hoping that the Tigers can put together four consistent quarters of play in this weekend's contests.

In other Friday games, Washington C. H., travels to Miami Trace and Hillsboro plays at Wilmington.

On Saturday, Washington plays powerful Chillicothe, and Miami Trace is at London. Wilmington, Greenfield and Hillsboro have no games scheduled Saturday.

Davis Demons Slate Two Shows Friday

The Davis Demons Drum Corps is scheduled to perform during halftime of the Logan Elm basketball game Friday with Picketon.

The Corps has provided entertainment for Logan Elm basketball fans at least once each season for the past five years.

Also, the Davis Demons have announced that their new performing group, The John Davis Percussion Ensemble, will be providing halftime entertainment for the crowds at the Circleville - Greenfield basketball game the same night. The new Ensemble is made up of veteran drum corps members, whose combined experience totals more than thirty years of drumming.

The John Davis Percussion Ensemble will be playing several selections, all of which were either written or arranged by Dr. John Davis, the Director of the Davis Demons.

Yastrzemski Keeps in Shape

WAKEFIELD, Mass. (AP) — A heavily perspiring Carl Yastrzemski had just finished one of his rugged daily workouts when he was told he had been voted Male Athlete of the Year for 1967 by an overwhelming margin in the annual Associated Press poll.

"I know what it's like to be on top and I want to stay on top," the slugging Boston Red Sox outfielder said in explaining what motivates him to keep squeezing trips to the gym into his hectic off-season schedule.

Illinois has never beaten Notre Dame in football. They have met 11 times. In 1937 they played a scoreless tie.

Evansville Aces Still No. 1 in Poll

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

The Evansville Aces, leaders in the final Associated Press small-college basketball polls in 1964 and 1965, have reached the top of the deck again.

The Aces beat Kentucky Wesleyan 71-64 last week and thus changed places with the Panthers from Owensboro, Ky.

Evansville collected seven first-place votes and 129 points in the latest balloting by a national panel of 14 sports writers and broadcasters based on games through last Saturday.

Kentucky Wesleyan had 95 points while unbeaten Long Island University held the No. 3 position with 92.

Evansville, after outstanding seasons in 1964 and 1965, dropped to eighth in the final 1966 ratings and was not ranked in 1967.

There was some additional position shifting in the latest rankings. Indiana State, Southwest Missouri State and Trinity, Tex., each advanced one place, to fourth, fifth and sixth, respectively.

San Diego State, which lost to Cal Poly of Pomona, fell from fourth to seventh. Southwestern Louisiana remained in the No. 8 spot.

Guilford, which beat Catawba and Appalachian last week for an 11-1 record, advanced one position to ninth. Winston-Salem, a 98-84 loser to Elizabeth City, slipped one place to 10th.

LIU is the only undefeated team among the first 10. The Blackbirds are 11-0 after defeating Seton Hall 53-47 in their only game last week.

The Top Ten with first-place votes in parentheses and total points on a 10-9-8-etc. basis:

1. Evansville (7) 129
2. Kentucky Wesleyan 95
3. Long Island U. (3) 92
4. Indiana State 75
5. SW Missouri St. (1) 62
6. Trinity, Tex. 57
7. San Diego State 41
8. SW Louisiana (1) 40
9. Guilford (1) 34
10. Winston-Salem 18

Bart Starr Says Lombardi Real Talker

By JACK HAND
Associated Press Sports Writer

FORT LAUDERDALE, Fla. (AP) — The Vince Lombardi pep talk is an awesome Green Bay Packers weapon that can make a quarterback want to run through a wall.

Bart Starr spoke of the Packers' emotional approach to football before today's workout for Sunday's Super Bowl game with the Oakland Raiders at Miami's Orange Bowl.

"Coach has said things that make me think I could run through a wall in the middle of the week," said Green Bay's quarterback. "He makes you wish you could play the game today."

"Football is a very emotional game. Physically, you know you'll be ready for Sunday. But if you're not ready emotionally and mentally, you can't do it on Saturday night."

"Sometimes, he will talk to the club before the first practice of the week," Starr said. "Sometimes, it will be later—whenever it comes naturally. Some people may think it is a lot of college and high school stuff but you have to be ready emotionally."

"He never has said anything out of line. When I make talks in the off season, I often quote him word for word. He has talked to us about this game both back home and since he arrived down here."

"Money is a great incentive. You'd be silly to say it wasn't with big money ($15,000 a man) at stake. But the big thing is pride and prestige in yourself and the whole league. We like to think we are representing every guard, every end, every back, every player in the National Football League. The league championship means more now than it used to. And this game is the climax of it all," he said.

College Basketball Action Hot and Heavy

By ED SCHUYLER JR.
Associated Press Sports Writer

Every basketball coach is happy to have an all-around player on his team, and St. Bonaventure's Larry Weise must be ecstatic over Bob Lanier.

The 6-foot-10 sophomore, the team's leading scorer and rebounder, not only scored 25 points and grabbed 15 rebounds Wednesday night, he also blocked eight shots and stole the ball six times as the unbeaten Bonnies defeated DePaul 77-67 for their 12th straight.

DePaul, behind 41-29 at half-time in the game at Olean, N.Y., closed to within five points with 13 minutes left. But then, with Lanier stealing the ball and blocking shots, the seventh-ranked Bonnies pulled away.

Lanier, who hit on 10 of 12 shots from the field, got scoring help from Billy Butler, with 20, and John Hayes, with 15. Al Zetsche led DePaul with 23.

Third-ranked North Carolina overcame an eight-point deficit in the second half to edge North Carolina State at Raleigh, N.C., and take over first place in the Atlantic Coast Conference.

The Tar Heels, the only other members of the Associated Press Top Ten to see action, were paced by Larry Miller's 13 rebounds and 17 points as they built their ACC record to 3-0 and their over-all mark to 10-1.

Louisville threw a full court press against home team Memphis State and rolled to its fourth straight victory, a 78-58 Missouri Valley Conference triumph.

Jimmy King scored 21. Butch Beard 20 and Wes Unseld 16 for the Tigers, now 8-4 over-all and 4-0 in the MVC.

St. John's, N.Y., behind by eight points with five minutes remaining, tied the game at 59-59 on two foul shots with one second left in regulation time, and then went on to beat Georgetown 65-61 at Washington.

And, Denver did something it hasn't accomplished in 10 years, beating Colorado State University at Fort Collins, 65-59. It was Denver's first success at Fort Collins since February, 1957.

Other road victories saw East Carolina nip William & Mary 71-70, Marshall outlasted Morris Harvey 101-93 and St. Francis, Pa., edged Steubenville 77-73.

In home-court triumphs, Air Force smashed Doane 109-69, Maryland downed West Virginia 79-75, South Carolina drubbed Wake Forest 88-73, Davidson pounded George Washington 107-75, Wofford beat Furman 71-68, Penn State walloped Gettysburg 84-47, Notre Dame whipped

Detroit 83-63, Connecticut trounced New Hampshire 96-70 and Tampa shaded Miami, Fla., 78-76.

In a light Ohio schedule, a couple of teams were upset. Wittenberg employed a control-type game in stopping Central State 60-58, and the Crusaders only their second defeat in nine games.

Ken Thomas hit on seven of 10 field shots en route to 20 points to pace Wittenberg, 5-7.

And Findlay was beaten only for the second time, losing 85-71 to Ohio Northern. The Oilers now 9-2, tried 98 field goals, but connected on only 31.

In the others, Larry Lewis led St. Francis, Pa., past Steubenville 77-73; Dave Fross poured in 24 points in Malone's 74-59 victory over Thiel, and Northwood, Ind., belted Wilberforce 98-79.

Pipers Take Eastern Lead From Muskies

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

The Pittsburgh Pipers made the most of the three-point field goal while the Minnesota Muskies were having trouble getting even the conventional two-points, and now there is a new leader in the American Basketball Association's Eastern Division.

Pittsburgh, which had trailed Minnesota by percentage points, took a one-game lead by edging Dallas 123-120 in overtime Wednesday night as the Muskies lost to Indianapolis 105-79.

The Pipers, winning for the 17th time in 18 games, fell behind by four points in the overtime but then cashed in on three three-point baskets and went on to win. Regulation play had ended in 110-110 tie.

Connie Hawkins scored 26 and Charlie Williams 24 for Pittsburgh. John Beasley poured 34 and Player-Coach Cliff Hagan 29 for Dallas.

Minnesota scored only 25 points in the first half, a league low, and made only 27 of 108 field goal attempts in being trounced by Indiana.

Bob Netolicky led Indiana with 28 points and Roger Brown added 27. Gary Keller topped the Muskies with 15.

In the only other ABA action, Houston nipped Anaheim 122-120 in overtime and Denver topped Kentucky 99-83.

Ice Fishing Good In Buckeye State

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP)—Gov. James A. Rhodes will walk on Lake Erie off Catawba State Park next Wednesday in a ceremony officially opening the State's ice fishing season.

The governor will drop a line through a hole in the ice near the west shore of Catawba Peninsula in the event sponsored by the Port Clinton, Vacationland and Sandusky Chamber of Commerce to promote ice fishing.

The governor's plans call for fishing from 9:30 a. m. to 11:30 a. m. followed by a luncheon given by the sponsors.

The ice off Catawba is now eight to 12 inches thick, the Ohio Department of Natural Resources reports. The department estimates that ice fishing is a $300 million-a-year business in Ohio.

State wildlife officials reported good Lake Erie fishing at Sandusky Bay, Catawba State

Park and Mouse Island, with yellow perch being taken with small minnows on weighted spinners just off the lake bottom.

Elsewhere, the wildlife office gave these reports:

Central Ohio—Crappies, bluegills and some catfish being taken at Indian Lake on minnows, worms and mousies.

Northwest Ohio—Yellow perch 7-11½ inches long being taken at Lima reservoirs with small Minnows and perch eyes in early afternoon. Pond 27 at Kildeer Wildlife area was yielding northern pike on large minnows.

Southwest Ohio—Stone Lick Lake had good ice and crappies and bluegills being caught with warworms late in the day. Other lakes had good ice, but less promising fishing.

Southeast Ohio — Good bluegills being caught at Burr Oak on mealworms, waxworms and mousies, as well as some bass on minnows.

Northeast Ohio—Chain pickerel and bluegills being taken at Spender Wildlife area's lake on minnows and mousies in late afternoon.

Greenfield, Westfall Provide CHS Tigers with Formidable Opposition

Powerful Greenfield, twice beaten this year, brings an array of talent to the new Circleville High School gymnasium Friday.

Presently deadlocked for the lead in the South Central Ohio League with Wilmington and Miami Trace, the Highland County Panthers sport the most productive offense on the circuit.

Their two losses this year have been by a total of three points, and include an opening defeat at the hands of Portsmouth, 74-72, and a SCO defeat by Miami Trace last Friday, 69-68.

In Bob Bristley, a smooth 6-2 cager who can operate equally well at either guard or forward, and in 6-5 center Steve Seig, the McClain squad has two of the best players in the league.

HELD to 15 points by Miami Trace's Eddie Summers, Sieg is averaging over 20 points per game, while Bristley has an average of nearly 17 points a game in league action and 20 in all games.

But Greenfield is no two man team with Rick Smith, a senior guard averaging over ten points a game, and Larry Stricker also hitting near the double figure mark in most games. To go with the starting five, there is plenty of bench strength.

Hillsboro Coach Vern Hooper commented last week that all he needed to make a good squad was "a couple of Greenfield's castoffs."

Expected to win the league handily because of the overall strength, size and speed, they were upset by Miami Trace's supero defensive effort last week.

With the three first place teams all playing second division opposition this week Greenfield will have to win all of the games in the second round for the league crown.

Circleville is still seeking its first win of the season. The Red and Black cagers have scored fewer points and have allowed more points than any other team in the league.

Friday's game will be played in the new high school gymnasium.

On Saturday, the action switches to the Mill Street gymnasium, with Westfall coming to town.

The Mustangs consistently have one of the top followings in the county, and a game with any of its county opponents is almost always played before a full house.

Bart Starr Says Lombardi Real Talker

FORT LAUDERDALE, Fla. (AP) — The Vince Lombardi pep talk is an awesome Green Bay Packers weapon that can make a quarterback want to run through a wall.

Bart Starr spoke of the Packers' emotional approach to football before today's workout for Sunday's Super Bowl game with the Oakland Raiders at Miami's Orange Bowl.

"Coach has said things that make me think I could run through a wall in the middle of the week," said Green Bay's quarterback. "He makes you wish you could play the game today."

The Mill Street facility will accommodate nearly a thousand more fans than will the new high school.

Westfall's leading scorer is 6-1 guard Charles Palmer. Andy Hamman, the other senior guard, and junior Ed Cornwell add plenty of balance to the scoring.

Tony Lightle, the Mustang center, is the defensive and rebounding specialist of the squad and also beefs up the scoring punch.

DENNY Fletcher has had the other starting position most of the season and last week proved his scoring potential with ten second half points against Union.

If recovered from a recent auto accident, Gene Carfrey will also be available to Coach Paul Hoskins.

NCAA Calls Off Truce with AAU

By RON RAPOPORT
Associated Press Sports Writer
NEW YORK (AP) — And the war goes on. And on and on.

The struggle for supremacy in track and field between the National Collegiate Athletic Association and the Amateur Athletic Union reverted to its infancy Wednesday when the NCAA officially called off the federally imposed moratorium at its annual convention here.

An NCAA council statement, approved by the convention at large, said that beginning after the 1968 Olympics, the NCAA would again insist on "certifying" any non-collegiate meet that college athletes take part in.

This was the policy first adopted in January 1965 that led to a summer full of bitterness before the NCAA, at the request of the U.S. Senate, agreed not to enforce the certification rule pending the decision of a panel headed by labor mediator Theodore Kheel.

The AAU has always insisted that it is the only body that can sanction a meet and would not ask for NCAA certification of the meets it sponsors.

The NCAA, for its part, will not ask the AAU for sanction of its meets where non-college athletes sometimes compete.

Kheel has promised that his committee will render its long-awaited decision soon, perhaps next month, but NCAA executive director Walter Byers said the council was unwilling to wait before reinstating the certification rule.

He said it would not be enforced until November because commitments had already been made for the current indoor track season and because the council did not want to interfere with Olympic preparations.

Byers obliquely issued a warning to the Kheel committee, saying, "we will not be bound by any decision that does not permit us to look out for our own athletes."

In other action, NCAA modified its 1.6 student eligibility rule—though not enough to suit some members—and voted to allow freshmen to compete in all varsity sports except football and basketball.

The 1.6 rule required a student to project that numerical average, about a C minus, on entrance tests approved by the NCAA and to maintain that average through his college career in order to compete on college teams.

As modified, though, he need not maintain the 1.6 average if he projects that average on admission tables equal to or harder than the NCAA tables.

Mahovich Leads Leafs To Victory

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

Frank Mahovich is long past the age of birthday parties and cakes and candles, but he still knows how to celebrate.

The left winger for Toronto whooped it up on his 30th birthday Wednesday night by scoring two goals that swept the Maple Leafs past Detroit 2-1 in Toronto.

The victory pulled the Leafs within two points of idle second place Boston in the East Division of the National Hockey League and within six of leading Chicago, which managed only a 3-3 standoff against visiting New York.

Montreal remained only a point behind Toronto—only 10 points separate the 10 East clubs—by nipping Pittsburgh 4-3 on defenseman J.C. Tremblay's goal with 41 seconds left. Second-place Minnesota pulled within six points of leading Philadelphia in the West by outscoring the Flyers 6-4 in Minneapolis-St. Paul on Wayne Connelly's three goals.

In the other game, host Oakland and St. Louis played a 2-2 tie.

The struggle for supremacy in track and field between the National Collegiate Athletic Association and the Amateur Athletic Union reverted to its infancy Wednesday when the NCAA officially called off the federally imposed moratorium at its annual convention here.

An NCAA council statement, approved by the convention at large, said that beginning after the 1968 Olympics, the NCAA would again insist on "certifying" any non-collegiate meet that college athletes take part in.

This was the policy first adopted in January 1965 that led to a summer full of bitterness before the NCAA, at the request of the U.S. Senate, agreed not to enforce the certification rule pending the decision of a panel headed by labor mediator Theodore Kheel.

The AAU has always insisted that it is the only body that can sanction a meet and would not ask for NCAA certification of the meets it sponsors.

The NCAA, for its part, will not ask the AAU for sanction of its meets where non-college athletes sometimes compete.

Kheel has promised that his committee will render its long-awaited decision soon, perhaps next month, but NCAA executive director Walter Byers said the council was unwilling to wait before reinstating the certification rule.

He said it would not be enforced until November because commitments had already been made for the current indoor track season and because the council did not want to interfere with Olympic preparations.

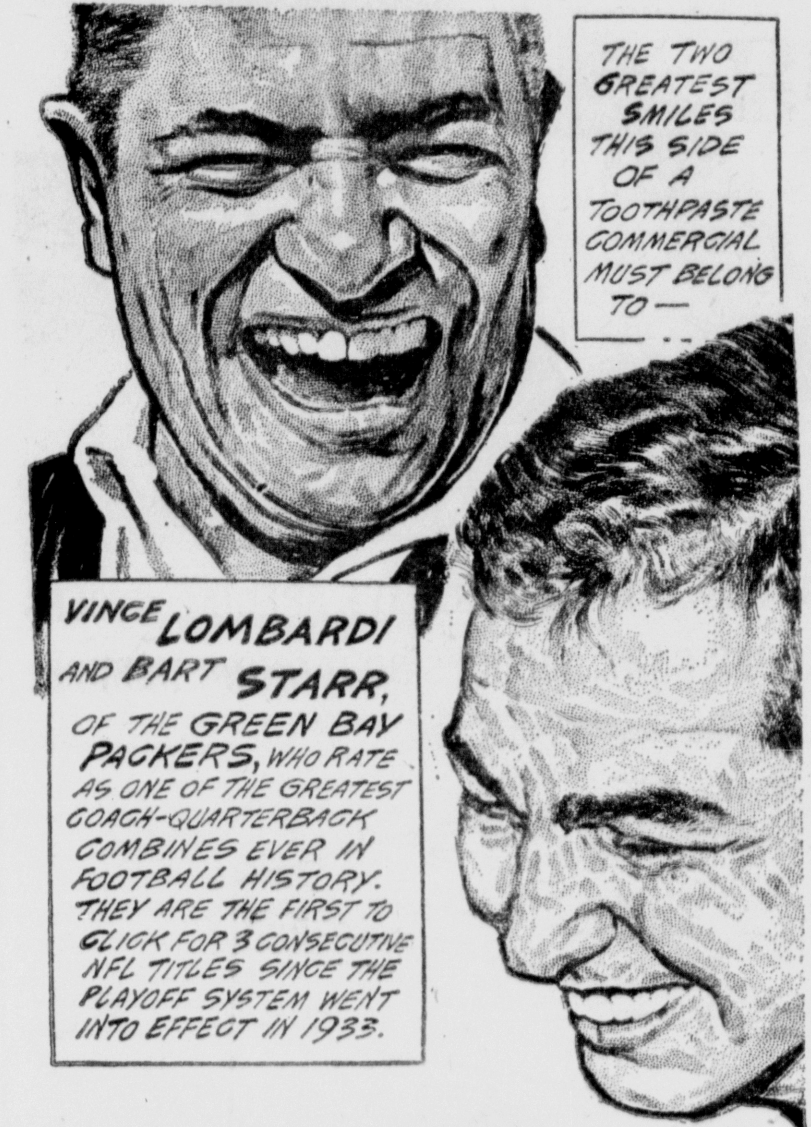

Byers obliquely issued a warning to the Kheel committee, saying, "we will not be bound by any decision that does not permit us to look out for our own athletes."

In other action, NCAA modified its 1.6 student eligibility rule—though not enough to suit some members—and voted to allow freshmen to compete in all varsity sports except football and basketball.

The 1.6 rule required a student to project that numerical average, about a C minus, on entrance tests approved by the NCAA and to maintain that average through his college career in order to compete on college teams.

As modified, though, he need not maintain the 1.6 average if he projects that average on admission tables equal to or harder than the NCAA tables.

Mahovich Leads Leafs To Victory

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS
Frank Mahovich is long past the age of birthday parties and cakes and candles, but he still knows how to celebrate.

The left winger for Toronto whooped it up on his 30th birthday Wednesday night by scoring two goals that swept the Maple Leafs past Detroit 2-1 in Toronto.

The victory pulled the Leafs within two points of idle second place Boston in the East Division of the National Hockey League and within six of leading Chicago, which managed only a 3-3 standoff against visiting New York.

Montreal remained only a point behind Toronto—only 10 points separate the 10 East clubs—by nipping Pittsburgh 4-3 on defenseman J.C. Tremblay's goal with 41 seconds left.

Second-place Minnesota pulled within six points of leading Philadelphia in the West by outscoring the Flyers 6-4 in Minneapolis-St. Paul on Wayne Connelly's three goals.

In the other game, host Oakland and St. Louis played a 2-2 tie.

Allies, Reds Clash In 3 Viet Areas

SAIGON (AP) — U.S. and South Vietnamese soldiers clashed with Viet Cong and North Vietnamese in a chain of battles Wednesday that stretched from the northern provinces to the Mekong Delta.

Three major engagements were reported.

—U.S. infantrymen, landing from river assault boats on the slippery banks of a Mekong Delta canal, ran head-on into a veteran Viet Cong battalion and killed at least 47 guerrillas in a 10-hour fight that ended early today. American losses were 18 killed and 50 wounded.

—Viet Cong infantrymen charged from behind a mortar barrage and struck hard at the hilltop bivouac of a South Vietnamese battalion, in Binh Dinh Province 270 miles above Saigon, killing 14 soldiers and 10 ammunition bearers and wounding 30 soldiers. A government spokesman said 23 guerrillas were killed and two were captured.

U.S. air cavalrymen, fighting under the banner of the Americal Division, reported killing 28 North Vietnamese regulars and said 14 of their own men were wounded in a four-hour fight in the Que Son Valley 370 miles northeast of Saigon. Only three of the wounded Americans had to be evacuated.

Woman Slays Attacker with His Own Knife

CLEVELAND (AP) — A woman threatened by a man with a knife at an East Side bus stop Wednesday night grabbed the knife and fatally stabbed the man in the neck, police reported.

Police identified the man as Nora Williams, 50, of Cleveland, who was found bleeding on the front steps of a house about a block and a half from the bus stop. He died about 30 minutes after being admitted to St. Alexis Hospital.

Katherine Travis, 41, told police she was waiting for a bus on East 79th Street near Holton Avenue when Williams accosted her and thrust the knife to her neck. She said she grabbed the knife with her left hand and started swinging it at her attacker.

Mrs. Travis was released after questioning.

Police said Williams was a former mental patient with a long police record, including arrests for robbery, carrying a concealed weapon and a sex offense.

Jury Grants Death Wish To Kirschke

LOS ANGELES (AP) — The jury that convicted former deputy Dist. Atty. Jack Kirschke of murdering his wife and a man in her bedroom has sentenced him to the California gas chamber as he dared it to.

The jurors deliberated about four hours before announcing their verdict Wednesday. The tall, lean Kirschke stood solemnly, unflinching, when he heard it.

The day before, arguing his own case, the 46-year-old former prosecutor had said: "I prefer death to spending the rest of my life in prison."

After the jurors affirmed their decision individually, Kirschke bowed to them slightly and sat down. Then he said he will seek a new trial.

In the courtroom was Albert C.S. Ramsey, the lawyer Kirschke dropped from his case when he won permission Monday to represent himself in the penalty phase of the trial. To newsmen Ramsey explained the reasoning that may have led Kirschke to ask for the death penalty.

Kirschke knows that the State Supreme Court automatically and promptly reviews all death sentences and he has said he believes the court looks more closely at death penalty cases than at those involving life imprisonment.

At the end of a 13-week trial Kirschke had said he was confident the jury would acquit him. But on Dec. 19 it said that Kirschke shot his dress designer wife Elaine, 43, and Orville W. Drankhan, 41, last April in the Kirschke's Long Beach apartment.

How About Taking Mexican Pesos?

DEMING, N.M. (AP) — Deming merchants are being asked to accept Mexican pesos in payment for goods and services as well as American dollars.

Merchants in this southwest New Mexico city near the border hope for more Mexican business after a highway from the border into the Mexican state of Chihuahua is completed.

"Your businessmen need to learn," Mexican businessman Alberto Duran told a Deming group, "that the peso is just as strong as the American dollar."

Travel Agency Gets Wrong Calls

WASHINGTON (AP) — A travel agent in suburban Bethesda, Md., felt something was amiss when he began getting temperature and a doctor he'd never heard of.

Dave Bond checked with the telephone company and discovered he'd been given a number formerly used by Bethesda Naval Hospital. The company allocated another number to the travel agency.

Karate, meaning "Empty hand," developed in the Orient. Chinese peasants, plagued by bandits, learned to use feet, elbows and knuckles as a means of fighting effectively without weapons. From China, the art of karate traveled to Okinawa and Japan.

Powell Shouts for 'Black Power'

LOS ANGELES (AP) — "Black Power will be the saving grace of the United States," shouted Adam Clayton Powell. Pacing as he spoke, Powell challenged some 6,000 students at University of California at Los Angeles Wednesday to "move out and try to create a new society."

The new Negro leaders "don't mind white followers but they don't want white leadership," he declared.

It was the first public speech by Powell since he broke his self-imposed exile on the island of Bimini and flew to California late Monday. He plans to make 13 more speeches at other U.S. colleges.

"I have a faith," Powell said, "that one day . . . black and white young people are going to walk the streets of America and say: 'This is our land. It doesn't belong to those senile people in Washington.'"

He said, too, the days of the civil rights movement are over. "Great old men like Phil Randolph and Roy Wilkins—they've had their day," he said.

Even Martin Luther King, Powell said, is changing his philosophy. He said that during a recent visit to Powell's retreat at Bimini, King told him "he's going to reverse his whole philosophy." Powell said King, who advocated passive resistance was not going to preach violence, "but he said he's going to stop saying only nonviolence."

Loud cheers and applause came from a section of the auditorium occupied by members of the Black Students Union. Powell addressed many of his remarks in their direction.

"I'm a man of the ghetto," he told them, "because I love my people. I like to be with my soul people."

Turning to the other side of the audience he cried, "and you white students—we're as good as you are. And in a sense . . . we are better than you."

"The trouble with you young white men and women," Powell said, "is that you have no leadership. Whether we agree with them or not, we've got our Stokely Carmichael, our Floyd McKissick, our Rap Brown and the old man of the sea, Adam Powell."

"We black folks, we got a new breed of cats."

Powell vowed he would eventually return to Congress—"how can they exclude me from Congress and allow good old Christian Tom Dodd to stay there?"

But he said he will continue to avoid New York where there is a warrant for his arrest on criminal contempt charges stemming from a libel judgment.

Lunar Module Launch Delayed
CAPE KENNEDY, Fla. (AP) — The maiden launching of the project Apollo Lunar Module has been delayed at least three days, until Jan. 21, by a series of minor problems that cropped up during spacecraft fueling.

No official announcement was expected from the National Aeronautics and Space Administration until the fueling exercise is more complete.

The first lunar module is a forerunner of the craft which is to land two American astronauts on the moon. On the initial flight the engines are to be tested in earth orbit.

Soviet and Czech pilots first were reported flying the planes for lack of qualified Nigerians. At least 200 Russian technicians arrived, too. Several South Africans, Englishmen and an Australian appeared.

A young Nigerian flew me through a 30-minute series of rolls and lazy eights 18,000 feet above Lagos. Then his commanding officer motioned to himself, my pilot and a third Nigerian flier and asked, "Do we look like white mercenaries?"

Mercurian pilots have been a touchy issue since the jets arrived. The planes came in August, a month after the outbreak of civil war between the federal government and the secessionist East which declared itself Biafra May 30.
